Upon completion of this course the student will be able to:

1. Form critical responses to ideas.
 - Distinguish between fact and opinion.
 - Analyse and articulate the reasoning behind an argument.
 - Demonstrate a critical examination of ideas through close reading, inquiry, divergent thinking, evaluation of evidence and interpretation, as well as an understanding of rhetoric, reason, logic and word usage.
 - Produce writing under exam conditions, as well as outside class.
 - Differentiate academic and non-academic writing.
1. Write in an academic style common to multiple disciplines.
 - Approach writing as an active exploration of multiple perspectives on a topic.
 - Compose effective summaries.
 - Select and use rhetorical patterns purposefully.
 - Employ a comprehensive writing process, which includes prewriting, focusing, planning, multiple drafting, conferring, revising and editing/proofing.
 - Develop an argument with a controlling thesis; write unified, coherent paragraphs, including effective introductions, transitions and conclusions in correct, clear, effective English.
 - Develop effective, focused research questions.
 - Demonstrate control, clarity and cohesion in the development and organization of ideas.
 - Vary style purposefully for planned rhetorical strategies.
 - Write for specific results.
 - Critique his/her own and others' writing.
1. Read and analyze complex texts from various academic disciplines.
 - Vary reading approaches for different purposes, such as personal response, persuasion, and criticism.
 - Participate and engage in a dynamic, stimulating exchange of ideas based upon close textual readings.
 - Discuss and debate text using terminology appropriate to the discipline and context of those texts.

- Analyze textual readings, which may include visual texts, by identifying controlling ideas, supporting details, dominant rhetorical pattern, subtext, tone and stylistic features.
 - Summarize readings to reflect coherently the original's ideas, purpose, organization, and tone.
 - Critically read your own and others' writing.
1. Demonstrate information literacy skills.
 - Determine the nature and extent of the information needed.
 - Know and use what information resources are available, in different formats.
 - Use print and electronic resources effectively and efficiently.
 - Evaluate sources for authority, relevance, reliability, currency and other criteria.

NO final exam for this course

Missed In-Class Essays and Tests:

- Unless you can prove a medical issue with a doctor's note, all in-class assignments/ tests/ essays must be completed in the intended class.
- A missed in-class assignment /test/ essay without a note will be given a grade of zero.
- Failure to notify me of your medical issue within 2 days of the intended class will disqualify you for a make-up assignment and also result in a grade of zero.
- If you already know that you are going to be unable to attend on the date an assignment is scheduled, please come and see me ASAP. If your absence is justifiable, we will determine a re-schedule date as close as possible to the set date.
- Missed work worth less than 3% cannot be made up at another date.

Late Essays:

- Essays are due at the start of class unless otherwise specified.
- Up to 5% per day (including weekends days) can be deducted for lateness. Nothing will be accepted 5 days or more past the due date.
- Requests for extensions will be considered, but only if the request is made in advance.
- I do NOT accept electronic submissions of assignments; I must have a printed version.
- Rewrites are NOT allowed.

Attendance, Readings, Homework, and Participation:

To do well in English 151, you must regularly attend the class.

As with any course, it is also vitally important that you have completed all assigned readings and any exercises or activities indicated in those readings before coming to each class (exception: anything indicated as 'group work' which will be done in class). Further, since our class time will be quite interactive, you must come prepared to actively and intelligently participate. Reading assignments are on attached schedule.

If you do find it necessary to miss a class, it is your responsibility to find out what you missed and to receive any extra homework instructions BEFORE the next class and BEFORE contacting me. I'd thus suggest you make a trustworthy friend in the class with whom you can exchange contact information.

About electronics:

- Laptops may only be used to take notes. Any other uses (facebook, reddit etc.) will result in a loss of that privilege.
- ALL cell phones must be turned completely OFF (not to vibrate) and kept out of sight.

6. Grading System

0-49	F	Minimum level has not been achieved.	0

Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy E-1.5 at camosun.ca for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete: A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that, due to design may require a further enrollment in the same course. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course. (For these courses a final grade will be assigned to either the 3 rd course attempt or at the point of course completion.)
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.

7. Recommended Materials or Services to Assist Students to Succeed Throughout the Course

LEARNING SUPPORT AND SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

There are a variety of services available for students to assist them throughout their learning. This information is available in the College calendar, at Student Services, or the College web site at camosun.ca.

STUDENT CONDUCT POLICY

There is a Student Conduct Policy which includes plagiarism. It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with the content of this policy. The policy is available in each School Administration Office, at Student Services, and the College web site in the Policy Section.
