In order to achieve the main objective – the implementation of theory into practice, students will do readings from the text, discussions in class, and a series of structure planned exercises that involve practicing new skills in pairs and small groups. Mini lectures will explain various concepts and techniques such as role-playing and written work will demonstrate and practice concepts and skills. Students will be evaluated on conceptual understanding as well as skill performance. All written work submitted requires a title page and a reference page submitted and formatted in APA 6th ed. Please refer to sample provided in class.

EVALUATION: A course grade will be determined by the following:

Role Plays 25% (MAX. 30 MIN.)

In teams of 3-5 students you are to role play a situation illustrating an aspect of an Interpersonal communication. The narrator should introduce the role play and keep the audience informed, as necessary, as to what concept or principle is illustrated (video, chart, and or role play). Following the role play, other students in the class are expected to comment on what they learned from the role play, how well the concept(s) were illustrated, etc. You are to conduct a class activity to solicit written feedback.

Grading of Role Play: 16 marks and written report 9 marks.

All members of the group are expected to work cooperatively on both the planning and the write-up. The final grade for the role play and the presentation will be shared among all members. Any student having difficulty with this format needs to discuss this with the Instructor. All members of the group are expected to contribute to the planning. Role play grade will be provided at the following class.

List of Role Plays:

You will form a group and present a thirty minute presentation (maximum) of a skill topic to the class. This presentation must illustrate your understanding of the concept or skill. You may elect role play, charts, games etc. to illustrate your topic. You will be provided some class time to help organize topics. Most of the presentation planning is done out of class.

Chapter Quizzes (40%)

There will be a quiz given approximately after each chapter reading. The purpose is to ensure the student keeps up with the text material. There are NO make up quizzes. The best eight of ten quizzes comprise the forty per cent. The student can miss two quizzes without lowering the overall course grade.

Tests (15%) Option is to take test one or test two.

There are two tests each worth the same percentage. Both tests composed multiple choice and short answer questions which examine your conceptual understanding. Test one covers material in chapters one through six. Test two covers material in chapters seven through ten. Although test one material covers one more chapter than test two, the material does build as the course unfolds, thus test two is equivalent to test one.

Transcript Test (10%) A written transcript of a conversation between the speaker and listener will be provided in class, covering chapter 7. You are responsible for analyzing the responses and accurately identifying the skills or/and roadblocks. You are to provide four alternative skills for each of the four original listener responses. The transcript assignment will be completed in class. A medical note will only be the permissible acceptance for missing this assignment. One hour of class time will be provided for completion.

Transcript Analysis and Alternatives (10%) In dyads you are to use the audio/video lab and conduct a twenty minute interview to demonstrate your skill performance: perception checking, paraphrase, open question, and empathy, as role of Active Listener. Further details will be provided in class. Following the taped session, a full transcription is required. This written report includes: identification of 5 consecutive responses, analysis of these skills, five alternatives to the original responses, and a summary including strengths, improvements, and communication goal. Be sure to include a title page and a reference page written in APA 6th ed. Reference used for this assignment is the textbook.
