4. Course Content and Schedule

Classes will be comprised of lectures and seminar work. Material from the text and selected readings related to current psychological issues and treatments will be examined. Seminar work includes discussions, activities, assignments, and student presentations. Seminar attendance will be taken and seminar participation is very important for student learning. DOING THE ASSIGNED READING BEFORE CLASS WILL HELP IN THE UNDERSTANDING OF LECTURES AND DISCUSSIONS. ASSIGNED READING IS PERTINENT TO DOING WELL ON QUIZZES. If you must miss a class, call me at 250-370-3200 or email Lenihan@camosun.bc.ca. If leaving a voice mail, please leave your name and telephone number clearly to return your call.

Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

*Three quizzes will comprise multiple choices, true and false, short answer and essay. Quizzes expect you to apply the terms and concepts of the course, not just recognize definitions. The scores on all three quizzes will comprise 54%% of course grade. Each quiz is worth 18%. QUIZZES ARE NOT ACCUMULATIVE. Please refer to handout distributed in class for details. There will be no make-up opportunities for quizzes missed without a doctor's note.

Thirty-five to forty minute Seminar Presentation-Social Issue: in teams of three or four students will work on a presentation of a social issue of interest. Further details will be discussed in seminar and guidelines will be provided. Seminar teams will be formed during the second week of classes. This assignment is worth 20% including both oral for 50 points and written for 10 points . A written outline of your responsibilities is due one week prior to the presentation (one per group). Two mark penalty is applied to a late or no submission.

Written presentation report requires: a running head, paginated, title page including: title of topic, course name and section, instructor's name, student's name, and date, a referenced ten fact sheet with each fact referenced, a copy of the first page of a research article, and a reference page including a minimum of three references per group member. All references are to follow APA 6th edition guidelines. Please refer to APA sample provided in class!]

PARTICIPATION:

Seminar attendance and activities is part of your participation grade. Seminars will be used for working in dyads and teams. If you miss a seminar, it is your responsibility to contact other students in order to catch up on any missed material. You must be in attendance to participate in any seminar activities. There are NO make -up opportunities for activities missed without medical documentation. Late or Missed Work:

No late work will be accepted without prior negotiation. There are no makeup quizzes without a medical note. A late 2 mark per day penalty will apply to assignments submitted after due date without Instructor permission. Please schedule your time to meet all due dates and make arrangements with the Instructor for any extensions.

Note: Recommended are two readings of each chapter: one reading prior to and following lecture. Please check timetable for readings assigned each week.

Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy at camosun.ca or information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

| Temporary Grade | Description |
|--------------------|---|
| I | Incomplete : A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family. |
| IP | In progress : A temporary grade assigned for courses that are designed to have an anticipated enrollment that extends beyond one term. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course. |
| CW | Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement. |

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy E-1.5 at camosun.ca for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

7. Recommended Materials or Services to Assist Students to Succeed Throughout the Course

LEARNING SUPPORT AND SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

There are a variety of services available for students to assist them throughout their learning. This information is available in the College calendar, at Student Services or the College web site at camosun.ca.

STUDENT CONDUCT POLICY

There is a Student Conduct Policy which includes plagiarism. It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with the content of this policy. The policy is available in each School Administration Office, at Student Services and on the College web site in the Policy Section.

STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Reading the assigned material is required, prior to class, in order to prepare for tests and to participate in class discussions and group tasks. Attendance is essential since key concepts will be covered in the lectures that are not covered in the course readings and will be on the quizzes. Two seminar assignments are three quizzes are required for completion for a student to be successful. Seminar attendance will be taken as part of your participation mark.
- 2. Special accommodation, if required, is given under extreme circumstances. The student must contact the instructor and provide documentation, within three days of the missed assignment or quiz if consideration is to be granted. Opportunities for makeup quizzes and dates are provided to students by the instructor.
- 3. All work is completed for this course only. Any work that is copied, plagiarized, or fabricated will automatically receive an "F" grade. All work submitted needs to be referenced, according to APA guidelines and should include a title page with course, instructor, date, and name and reference page.
- 4. Late work will only be accepted if in extreme cases and mutually agreed upon. Please follow all guidelines for meeting due dates.

STUDENT STUDY TECNIQUES: There are 6 phases for effective studying (PQ4R)

- 1. Preview: Scan chapter titles, subtitles, and chapter summary before reading the chapter
- 2. Question: formulate questions from the textbook, lecture notes using headings and subheadings. Use on line glossary and flash cards to define terminology and concepts
- 3. Read: be sure to read theories and concepts to compare and contrast similarities and differences between the bio-psychosocial perspectives. For example how does psychoanalytic theory compare to the cognitive social learning theory? Keep your questions in mind and do not skip graphs, boxes, tables etc.
- 4. Retreive: prepare to come to lecture asking questions after you test yourself multiple times.. If uncomfortable asking questions in class than email questions or book a time to see instructor. Also self-testing is available on the free book companion website (www.worthpublishers.com/myers).

- 5. Review: Create a summary covering all your questions and answers. Complete chapter reviews and list all the key terms and operationally define.
- 6. Read: read the chapter a second time, following class/seminar. Reading the chapter for any missed detail in order to apply your conceptual understanding using examples.
