Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy E-1.5 at camosun.ca for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete: A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that, due to design may require a further enrollment in the same course. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course. (For these courses a final grade will be assigned to either the 3 rd course attempt or at the point of course completion.)
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.

7. Recommended Materials or Services to Assist Students to Succeed Throughout the Course

LEARNING SUPPORT AND SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

There are a variety of services available for students to assist them throughout their learning. This information is available in the College calendar, at Student Services, or the College web site at camosun.ca.

STUDENT CONDUCT POLICY

There is a Student Conduct Policy which includes plagiarism. It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with the content of this policy. The policy is available in each School Administration Office, at Student Services, and the College web site in the Policy Section.

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS AS APPROPRIATE OR AS REQUIRED

We all know that classes in which attendance is sporadic, preparation is incomplete, and participation is half-hearted are an absolute drag for all involved. In addition, students who do not attend class tend to receive lower grades than they are capable of achieving. In short, regular attendance and careful preparation are crucial to both a dynamic classroom atmosphere and individual success. So come to class.

10% of your grade for this course is allotted to quizzes and in-class exercises. To encourage and measure preparation, I will regularly assign reading quizzes, and sometimes students will receive a participation mark for in-class work. This is your chance to gain marks for doing what every student should be doing anyway: reading carefully, attending class, and taking things seriously. These quizzes and exercises are of the moment and cannot be made up at a later date.

Note that all assignments for this class should be formatted and according to MLA guidelines. The library website has useful material on MLA style and documentation.

If some crisis keeps you from finishing an assignment on time, please contact me to work something out.

If you are not handing an assignment directly to me, please bring it to my office and slide it under the door. I will consider the assignment handed in when I see it with my own eyes and touch it with my own hands, and I will let you know that I have received it.

You must keep a photocopy or electronic copy of everything you hand in case one of your assignments is tragically misplaced, stolen, or damaged. You must also keep all returned work and produce it when asked to do so. As a side benefit, you will find one day that reading what you wrote a long time ago reveals how much you have grown and learned since then!

I respond to emails from students. If you email me and I do not respond, assume that I haven't received it and check in with me again.

Please see the attached handout for information about definitions of and consequences for plagiarism. In this class, the minimum penalty for plagiarism is a grade of zero on the relevant assignment. In addition, I will report plagiarized assignments to the Dean of Arts and Sciences. Of course, since the goal of this class and indeed of all education is to learn to think for yourself, I will also be profoundly disappointed in you if you hand in work that is not your own or have not yet learned the ethics of citation.

Please feel free to come and see me about anything to do with the course, small or big, at any time. If you cannot come during my office hours, just let me know, and we will find a time that suits both of us. Visits from students are never an imposition. I love discussing reading, writing, and ideas.

LEARNING SUPPORT AND SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

There are a variety of services available for students to assist them throughout their learning, including the Writing Centre and Counselling Services. Information on these services is available in the College Calendar, at Student Services or on the College web site at <http://www.camosun.bc.ca>

ACADEMIC CONDUCT POLICY

There is an Academic Conduct Policy at Camosun College that covers issues such as plagiarism and classroom behaviour. It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with the content of this policy. The policy is available in each School Administration Office, at Registration, and on the College web site in the Policy Section at www.camosun.bc.ca/divisions/pres/policy/2-education/2-5.html
