3. Materials (required & optional) & activities outside of class time

a) you need access to the textbook (purchase OR borrow from the library)

Modern Art History by Arnason and Mansfield (2010). There are new copies available at Camosun Bookstore, possibly some used ones there—or, at other bookstores in town. There is 1 copy on 2-hour reserve in the library. You may use earlier editions of the text.

b) writer's/style manual for your research and writing. You will be citing your sources using the Chicago Manual of Style (footnotes). I will provide a style sheet on PBworks.

A fantastic site: <http://www.noslanguages-ourlanguages.gc.ca/bien-well/fra-eng/index-eng.html>

c) access to a computer and the web; an email account, access to www.art180.pbworks.com

All course material is on a website (not D2L). I manually add students to the site using the email address on Camlink. If you need access, send me an email and I will add you to the site.

d) access to a word processing program that allows you to use footnotes

Camosun's computers have Word loaded if you do not have your own copy.

e) REQUIRED Visual arts student pass (VASP) for the AGGV ($12)

Some of the course material will include seeing exhibitions (during class time) and/or attending talks at the Art Gallery of Greater Victoria (AGGV). I will circulate the membership sheet and collect the money for this. When you visit the AGGV, bring your Camosun student ID and your card will be given to you. It is valid until next August. To see upcoming lectures and exhibition, visit their website: www.aggv.ca

f) visiting art galleries; public sculpture walking tour of downtown Victoria

Part of the course content will be undertaken outside of class time, namely visiting local galleries (free admission), the AGGV, and doing a walking tour of public sculpture pieces and specific pieces of architecture around the downtown core. You are required to submit a completed field trip waiver form to me and I will submit it to A&S office. Details of the AGGV trip will be posted on PBworks.

4. Course Content

Welcome to the fascinating world of art history! This course explores Western art and architecture beginning c. 1750 and moving chronologically to contemporary art and architecture in the 1990s. As it is clearly impossible to cover all countries, art historical periods, artists, and artistic mediums, only a select few key areas and artists will be explored.

The artistic legacies we do investigate will be considered and discussed according to their meaning(s) and function(s) in relation to the specific society and/or culture that produced the art. Art works will also be examined according to styles and artistic techniques.

Warning: During the there will be images and themes that some students may find troubling or controversial. If you feel this is going to adversely affect you or your ability to attend the lectures and/or complete assignments, come and talk with me.

Note: the lecture schedule is posted on www.art180.pbworks.com

THINGS TO NOTE:

- this is a university-transfer class (UT class) and so this course is taught at this level; exams & research papers are marked according to a 100 level UT.
- there are no make-up exams or extra assignments to increase your grade.

ASSIGN #3: ACADEMIC RESEARCH PROJECT ESSAY & SUMMARY

From the list on PBworks, select one piece of Greater Victoria public art. Research and write an academic research essay that analyzes the art according to the criteria stated in the assignment sheet. The essay will be 2,000-2,500 words of essay text; it will adhere to the format and language of academic papers.

Academic consequences if source material is not cited

Not citing your sources is a form of plagiarism and, therefore, cannot receive a passing grade. If you are not sure about when and how to cite your sources, consult your Style Manual. Camosun has an Academic Conduct Policy and it is the student's responsibility to become familiar with the content of this policy.

Late essay Late assignments will be penalized. Until I hold the assignment in my hands, 5% per day will be deducted from the final assignment grade. The weekend (Sat & Sun) counts as 1 day. Assignments may not be accepted after 1 calendar week (7 days) from due date unless special permission is arranged beforehand.

EXAM 1, 2 AND 3

Exams are based on a combination of lecture notes and material on the pbworks website as well as conducting additional research. Completing the readings or attending the lectures will not be enough! Also, there is something from every lecture on the exams. You will be given an exam overview ahead of time—as well as the essay questions—so you can prepare. You are allowed to bring in an outline for the essay portion of the exam.

Missed exams & Make-up exams. If a student misses an exam due to illness or extenuating circumstances, notify me immediately (voice mail is acceptable). Medical (written) certification must be produced within three (3) week days of missed exam before alternate testing will be arranged; otherwise a grade of “0” will be issued for that exam. The make-up exam is scheduled within 3 weekdays of the missed exam, and is different from the one given in class.
