5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

Marks will be determined on the basis of the following work:

1. Reading Quizzes – 10%

With each new chapter students will be asked to take an online multiple choice quiz that accompanies the textbook. The quizzes will cover the reading for a chapter and must be completed prior to the start of that class. The online submission window will close one hour prior to the start of that class – Mondays & Wednesdays at 7:30 AM.

3. Short Essays: 15% (5% per assignment)

Students (individually or as part of a group) will write a minimum of three short essays of no more than 250 words each. A choice of four questions will be posted at the start of each section. Students / groups will choose from one of the four questions. Students or groups may submit up to four SEs with the three highest grades counting towards their final grade. Papers should be just as well-crafted as a standard essay. Late assignments will be penalized 25% per day. For more information, see the Assignment section of the D2L content page.

4. Term Paper - 25%

The term paper must be submitted by 11:59 PM on Sunday June 12th to the course's D2L Essay Dropbox. Late assignments will be penalized 10% per day. No assignments will be accepted after June 16th. For more information, see the Assignment section of the D2L content page.

5. Debate – 15% Students will register (through the D2L) into one of three groups (Pro, Con and Judges). Along with two mandatory prep days, the mandatory in class debate will occur on Wednesday June 15th. For more details, see the Assignment section of the D2L content page.

6. Engagement Grade - 5%

All students will be asked to make a meaningful contribution to class activities and demonstrate engagement with topic. There are numerous ways for students to express their engagement. See the D2L site for a full account of participation grading.

7. Take Home Final – 30%

A final exam will consist of two take home essays due at noon on Thursday June 23rd. Individual students will have 72 hours to compose two essays of no more than 500 words in length. Students will answer two short essay questions (from a choice of six) which draws from themes covered since the beginning of the semester. Two separate essays will be submitted through the course's Drop box. For more information, see the Assignment section of the D2L content page.

6. Grading System

Standard Grading System (GPA)

Percentage	Grade	Description	Grade Point Equivalency

50-59	D	Minimum level of achievement for which credit is granted; a course with a "D" grade cannot be used as a prerequisite.	1
0-49	F	Minimum level has not been achieved.	0

Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy E-1.5 at camosun.ca for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete: A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that, due to design may require a further enrollment in the same course. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course. (For these courses a final grade will be assigned to either the 3rd course attempt or at the point of course completion.)
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.

7. Recommended Materials or Services to Assist Students to Succeed Throughout the Course

LEARNING SUPPORT AND SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

There are a variety of services available for students to assist them throughout their learning. This information is available in the College calendar, at Student Services, or the College web site at camosun.ca.

STUDENT CONDUCT POLICY

There is a Student Conduct Policy which includes plagiarism. It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with the content of this policy. The policy is available in each School Administration Office, at Student Services, and the College web site in the Policy Section.
