(f)	Website:	https://online.camosun.ca/ (Login to D2L for access)

2. Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course a student will be able to:

1. Prepare and produce a fragment of musical score using score notation software for use in an educational music performance setting.
2. Perform a fragment of musical score using Musical Instrument Digital Interface (MIDI) to express accurately the sounding context of the music set.
3. Prepare and present a small segment of lecture-recital via podcast or videocast performance for personal archive use by the performer(s).
4. Record, edit, and render a simple video recording of a solo or small group musical performance for personal archive use by the performer(s).
5. Summarize elements of current social media opportunities and options in a technology context as these apply to promotion of the emerging professional musician.

3. Required Materials

- (a) Textbook: None. All readings provided on course website (see Section 1f above).
- (b) Hardware: As specified on the course website: Laptop or desktop computer, speakers or headphones or earphones, microphone or portable audio recorder, and audio interface (if necessary).
- (c) Software: As specified on the course website: Finale NotePad, REAPER, CoolSoft VirtualMIDISynth (for Windows users only), Arachno SoundFont, Blue Cat Audio Plug-ins, and LAME encoder.
- (d) Other: Internet access to the course website on D2L. Administrative permissions to install software on the computer being used for the course.
See Section 7, Recommended Materials, below for supplementary course resources.

4. Course Content and Schedule

Dates: 14 Weeks, January 11 - April 17. Plus, April 18-24 for final project submission.

Class Location: Distance Learning, the Camosun College Desire2Learn online platform.

Class Meeting Times: Distance Learning, self-paced weekly or biweekly Modules.

Holidays: Week 5, Monday, February 8: Family Day.

Week 6, Thursday-Friday, February 18-19: Reading Break.

Week 11, Friday, March 25: Good Friday.

Week 12, Monday, March 28: Easter Monday.

- (a) The average amount of time spent working on materials for this course is 3 hours per week. The weekly schedule on Page 5, below, outlines the weekly/biweekly modules of content that are to be completed in order. For each week of the term, topics and assessment due dates are provided.
- (b) Section 5, below, outlines the basis of student assessment. The participation portion of your grade consists of eight (8) assessments in total: five (5) discussions, and three (3) self assessment quizzes. The exercise portion of your grade consists of one (1) exercise. The quiz portion of your grade consists of two (2) quizzes. The project portion of your grade consists of four (4) projects. Assessments within each category (participation, exercise, quizzes, and projects) are weighted equally.
- (c) In order to receive full credit for each of the graded assessments, you must submit them by their respective due dates and times. In the event you do not meet a submission deadline and you have not been given an extension (see Section 4d below), I will accept your late work with penalty. Points will be deducted for each day an assignment is late (2 per day, up to a maximum of 50 deducted). Please do your best to submit your work as soon as you have completed it, even if the deadline has passed.

4. Course Content and Schedule (Continued)

(d) Missing class for illness is not a concern for this online course. You may, however, experience illness that prevents you from meeting a submission deadline. In this case, if you wish to receive an extension you must promptly forward documentation to the instructor from a doctor (or certified healthcare professional), preferably before the deadline passes. Camosun College requires that this documentation include a clear statement from your doctor of WHAT you could not do and WHEN you could not do it (e.g., "Student was bedridden from October 5-7," or "Student will not be able to use right hand for two weeks, October 1-15"). It is not necessary to disclose the reason for your illness. Upon approval of your doctor's note, accommodations within reason will be made to help you complete missed work. Note: It is your responsibility to be aware of assessment deadlines and to pace your weekly progress so that you are able to meet these deadlines.

5. Basis of Student Assessment

- (a) Exercise: Sequencing (1) 5% of course mark
- (b) Quizzes: MIDI, Sound and Digital Audio (2) 20% of course mark
- (c) Projects: Notation, Sequencing, Recording, Internet (4) 60% of course mark
- (d) Participation: Discussions (5), Self Assessments (3) 15% of course mark

6. Grading System (Continued)

Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy E-1.5 at camosun.ca for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete: A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that, due to design may require a further enrollment in the same course. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course. (For these courses a final grade will be assigned to either the 3rd course attempt or at the point of course completion.)
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.

7. Recommended Materials and Services

- (a) Optional Hardware: As specified on the course website: MIDI keyboard or synthesizer, Video camera or webcam or internal camera, portable device.
- (b) Optional Software: As specified on the course website: PrimoPDF (for Windows users only), QuickTime Player, iTunes, and GarageBand (for Mac users only).
