Regular attendance and participation in class are required. It is expected that students will arrive at class on time and that during class students will be attentive, non-disruptive, open minded, constructive and respectful of others. The use of cell phones and/or texting and emails/web browsing are not allowed during class time. Students are encouraged to identify current events that directly relate to course content.

A make up examination will not normally given but may be administered in situations of severe illness (with medical note) or significant personal issue (with supporting evidence). Each request will be considered individually. Don't miss scheduled exams. Exams will be administered at the beginning of each class

d. Late Penalty

All assignments must be completed and submitted at the beginning of class on the due date assigned. All late assignments will be penalized 10% of the total mark per day. The starting point for penalty assignment is immediately after assignments are received by the instructor at the beginning of class. Students having legitimate concern about meeting a due date should consult with the instructor well in advance.

Arrangements for the submission/delivery of late assignments must be made with the instructor on an individual basis. Do not drop the assignment off at my office, college, library or any other place or person. Assignments which are submitted contrary to these directions will not be graded.

e. Written Assignment Requirements

Assignments must be completed in formal academic format following the style described in the Writing Reference Manual for the Criminal Justice Program. All work must be properly referenced using the APA format. All written assignments for this course must be type written, double spaced, on one side of 8.5"x 11" white paper. All assignments must only be stapled in the upper left corner (one staple only) and without any plastic or duo tang type covers. Assignments submitted contrary to these directions will not be graded.

All assignments submitted for evaluation must be the original work of the student (s) and produced for this course only. The submission of assignments completed for other courses may be considered as academic dishonesty.

f. Course Completion Requirements

Students must complete all evaluative requirements to receive a passing grade for this course. Students failing to complete all the requirements will receive an F grade.

g. Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the failure to fully and accurately acknowledge the source of all information used in your assignments, thereby giving the impression that the work is your own. Plagiarism includes the use of quotes, or another author's words without using quotation marks or giving the proper reference citation to the original author. Plagiarism also includes failing to document the source(s) of paraphrased information and/or ideas.
