4. Course Content and Schedule

(This section can include: class hours, lab hours, out of class requirements and/or dates for quizzes, exams, lectures, labs, seminars, practicums, etc.)

A typical weekly module consists of a "how to" lecture, analysis of a published story, a class discussion and writing exercises. It is expected you will do all your reading and journal exercises in order to be successful in the course. Everyone has a writing group and takes part in peer critiques. Revision is an important part of the writing process, and you will have the opportunity to revise and polish your stories. The course is organized into weekly modules and assignments are due each week by Sunday at midnight.

5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

(This section should be directly linked to the Intended Learning Outcomes.)

First Versions	6%
Participation in peer editing	10%
Discussion Postings	12%
Journal Entries	12%
Midterm portfolio (2 stories)	30%
Final portfolio (1 story)	30%
	100%

Assignments

Students in this class write three (3) stories. Detailed instructions accompany each assignment. Students' work will be graded on how well they have met the specific requirements of each assignment. Basic skills of grammar, spelling and punctuation must be in place.

You should ALWAYS keep a copy of EVERYTHING you submit for evaluation. Accidents sometimes happen and work may be misplaced. Please keep copies of Drafts as well as final stories. I may ask to see the process of the work, not just the final product. The portfolio consists of critiques from your instructor and peers as well as the final polished story. You must complete all three (3) stories to receive a grade in this course.

I expect work to be submitted on time. Discussion postings and first versions of your story must be posted on time to earn the completion mark. Portfolios will be penalized 5% per day for being late and will not be accepted if they are more than one week late. I know life and technology interfere with the best of intentions, so talk to me if you have problems. I'm more open to discussions about this if we talk BEFORE the due date.

Plagiarism will result in an automatic F grade for the work involved. See Section 1, "Academic Misconduct," in the Camosun College Calendar.

Format Requirements for Assignments

1. In the left hand corner, please include a title (i.e. Story #1), your name, CRWR 154, and the date. As well, each finished story should have a thoughtful title. (No separate title pages, please.)
2. All assignments should be written in 12 pt. Font and Times New Roman style. Please double space your work, and number your pages.
