5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

(This section should be directly linked to the Intended Learning Outcomes.)

(a) Assignments

Research assignment (bibliography, see details below): 20%

Worksheets (take-home assignments designed to help the students become more fluent in the language, terminology, technique, etc., of the compositions studied.):

Take-home worksheets (5): 25%

(b) Quizzes: There will be TWO quizzes comprised of listening examples from music that has NOT been studied or listened to in class. The style, however, will be very similar. These quizzes are designed to help focus your listening in preparation for the mid-term and final exams.

In-class quizzes (2): 10%

(c) Exams: Both mid-term and final exams will be made up of listening examples taken from the music studied in class. Questions pertaining to these selections will be asked. In addition, there will be a small number of questions with no listening component, such as brief definition questions, mix-and-match, etc. The Final Exam will include a brief, note-form essay, the subjects for which will be given to the class one week prior to the exam

Mid-term exam: 20%

Final exam: 25%

Music 124 RESEARCH ASSIGNMENT

PROJECT: To compile an annotated bibliography of writings on a musical topic of your choice pertaining to the periods studied during this term. In choosing your topic, particular attention should be paid to style of performance – i.e., how can you determine how, where, and on which instrument(s) was this music performed during the period in which it was composed? You may consider a composer (e.g. Guillaume de Machaut), a genre (e.g. Italian madrigal), a specific work (e.g. Spem in alium), a collection (e.g. Fitzwilliam Virginal Book), an instrument (e.g. shawm), a treatise (De institutione musica or Musica enchiriadis), etc.

The following items will be circulated to the class to help introduce you to the available resource(s) and to the format:

- handout from UVic
- Chicago-style citation Quick Guide

You are required to identify the resource (include title, chapter if applicable, journal if applicable) and give a brief paragraph-long description of its content and value (eg., what material it basically covers, if there are illustrations and/or musical examples, etc.). You should aim for a total of 5-7 sources. Depending on your topic, this could involve some editing on your part: try to ensure that your bibliography would actually be useful to a third party, and therefore avoid including books or articles that only mention or otherwise skim over your topic.

6. Grading System
