5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

(a) Exams (60%):	There will be three in-class exams; each exam is worth 20% of your final grade. Exams will consist of multiple-choice, short answer, and long answer questions and will test your knowledge of assigned readings and lecture material. The exams will be held at the beginning of class on the dates listed above. More information will be provided in class prior to the first exam.
(b) Case Study Presentation (20%)	Presentation (10%): Twice during the term, you will be required to prepare a summary and assessment of one of the case studies covered in class. You will present this to a small group of students and then facilitate a discussion of the case study. More information on this assignment will be provided in class. Each presentation is worth 5% of your final grade. Participation (10%): You will receive participation marks for taking part in each of the case study discussions (1% each).
(c) Social Problem Discussions (20%)	After each section, you must submit a short discussion on the social problem covered in class. Each discussion will be between about 300 words and will focus on how to address the problem. More information on this assignment will be provided in class. Each discussion is worth 5% of your final grade (the lowest discussion mark will be dropped).

6. Grading System

Missed Assignment Policy

If you miss an exam or presentation or do not hand in a discussion on time and you have a reasonable excuse (illness, accident, family affliction, religious obligations, etc.), please contact me as soon as possible to schedule a make-up assignment or to arrange a new due date for the missed assignment. If you do not have a reasonable excuse, a missed exam or presentation will receive a grade of zero and late discussion will be penalized at 5% per day.

If you do not complete all required work for this course (exams, presentations, and discussions), you may be denied a passing grade.

Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy E-1.5 at camosun.ca for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete: A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that, due to design may require a further enrollment in the same course. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course. (For these courses a final grade will be assigned to either the 3rd course attempt or at the point of course completion.)
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.
