2. Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course the student will be able to:

1. Develop and manage the process of independent research in art.
2. Use basic welding techniques and processes.
3. Identify and define the elements of three dimensional and time based art work.
4. Outline a history of sculpture & time based art.
5. Generate ways to combine media and processes for 3D and 4D work, including conceptual artwork.

3. Required Materials

- (a) Texts
Reading assignments can be found on D2L
- (b) Other
Appropriate tools and materials as required by your project

4. Course Content and Schedule

Through conceptualizing, planning and executing your own projects, you will explore a wide variety of materials and media and discover the relationships between materials and concepts in two-dimensional art-making. You will learn how to practice the discipline necessary to produce successful work in a self-directed situation, not supported by project structures and boundaries. You are encouraged to expand the boundaries of two-dimensional making by incorporating other disciplines such as printmaking, photography, video & performance, constructions, and installation into their projects.

There will be three major group critiques during the semester and you will be expected to complete at least one project or progress report per critique¹. The size and scope of each project will be discussed with your instructor. The group critiques provide you with further experience in analyzing and discussing the form and content in your own work and others. The instructor will also meet with you on an on-going basis throughout the semester for individual critiques; there will be a midterm evaluation of your work and further equipment demos with the technician if needed. You will gain further experience with the effective presentation of two-dimensional artwork through consideration of lighting, placement and site-specificity.

There will be several videos of both historical and contemporary work by artists who work in two-dimensional media and will be assigned reviews of exhibitions, visiting artists' lectures and various reading assignments.

During class time, you are expected to make full use of the studio classroom. Your teacher is around to help you make progress; discussions before commencing on projects are vital to the success of your research. Discussions before collecting materials or building are important; it will save you time and money. Research, collecting material and supplies are considered homework and should be done outside of class time. However you should optimize your time while waiting to get help to do research while waiting to see your teacher. Access to a laptop computer is useful during the initial stages of your project; likewise art databases and academic texts (Art Theory, Visual Culture, Modern Art History) are useful tools for your research.

Research can be defined broadly as (active) reading, drawing, writing, modeling, discussing, interviewing, watching, noting, or any other means of aggregating information that would directly help you crystallize your ideas, concepts, and making.

Course Plan

Week	Activity	Notes
1 January 10	Course outline. Highlight critique criteria and dates. Discuss ideas with instructor.
2 January 17	Discussion with students their project proposals. Video Welding demos start
3 January 24	Discussion with students about projects and materials needs. Students begin projects, do research, and collect materials. Drop and Tuition Refund Deadline
4 January 31	Work on projects.
5 February 7	Work on projects. Video/readings. Discussion.
6 February 14	College closed. Reading Break 13 – 16 th .
7 February 21	FIRST CRITIQUE

¹ As an example, expect to put in preparation for the first critique, at least 16 hours of work. Add at least additional 12 hours minimum for each subsequent critique. The time you put in will show in the quality of work; it will appear in the depth of research, in the experimental or testing stages, or in the process of making. It is far better to fail spectacularly than to be safe. Do a million little things if you are stuck; do little "quick and dirty" studies; look at them as sketches or notations. Do a few hundred of them. Something really interesting and unimaginable will happen. Get into the process, trust the process. The process will take you forward. It takes time, it takes commitment, and it takes courage. That is Creativity.

8 February 28	MIDTERM INTERVIEWS. Second phase of project discussions. Students begin projects.
9 March 7	Continue work on projects. Video/readings. Discussion.
10 March 14	SECOND CRITIQUE Course Drop deadline March 14 th w/o academic penalty

13 April 4	FINAL CRITIQUE 1.
14 April 11	FINAL CRITIQUE 2.
15 April 16 – 24	FINAL INTERVIEWS take place in exam week.

5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

- Fearlessness & Inventiveness
- Process & Exploration
- Sophistication & Presentation
- Participation & involvement

The course will be evaluated by the intensity of research and development, and the quality of work you produce.

The quality factor is based on the success of the work. The critiques throughout the semester and visiting artists/instructors will all feed into this evaluation factor.

1. The success of the work relative to the original planning proposal and to evolving concerns i.e. content
2. The aesthetic quality of the work produced i.e. form: the students' ability to effectively deal with the formal "construction" of the work
3. The quality of ideas: exploration, inventiveness, inquisitiveness, research & homework.
4. Intensity of work and class/critique involvement: peer reviews and class participation, visiting artist reviews, preparedness for class critiques and reading discussions
5. Studio Conduct & Etiquette Grade
 - a. Students will start the semester with 10/10 for their Studio Habits grade; marks will be deducted if students neglect to demonstrate safe respectful use of communal facilities and equipment, studio interactions and material provisions.
 - b. This includes returning all A/V & Sculpture shop equipment within specified borrowing time.
 - c. Students will be evaluated on their ability to clean up after themselves (or their group) each day before leaving the studio. Works left in common spaces 30 minutes prior to the next class start time, or 9a.m. the next day will result in an immediate deduction of 3% per work (i.e. a painting left out to dry overnight not in designated storage spaces in Y117).
 - d. Work may only be stored in designated storage areas (or with special permission of instructor and instructional technician).
 - e. Failure to properly store, remove or dispose of projects during the semester and / or within the deadlines communicated at the end of the semester will result in a deduction of 5% per work.
6. The involvement factor would include participation in class activities (critiques) and the commitment to one's own work and the problem solving in both content and formal concerns of that work. You will be expected to work for 6 hours per week in class and for a minimum of 4 hours of self-directed homework per week.

See D2L Rubric for further details.
