MEETING WITH THE INSTRUCTOR:

Email: I teach a number of classes and have between 75-80 students in a semester. I do not email on weekends but will respond to you within 24 hours from Monday to Friday. When emailing me please include your first and last name, the name of the class and section number, and an appropriate subject in the subject line (e.g. I have a question about the group project).

In Person: I have regular office hours in Paul 237 several times throughout the week, and available during those times or by appointment. My experience teaching shows that students often ask the same questions through email, and for consistency and knowledge sharing purposes, I will address most general questions during the last 10 mins of class once per week which is designated as Q/A. This does not mean it is time to leave class. You are expected to participate with questions during this time or by active listening and note taking. If you are not clear on anything related to the course such as class procedures and policy, expectations, or content this is the time we will discuss these issues in an open and transparent format. If you have more specific questions related to content you would like to discuss in more detail then I encourage you to come to my office hours.

PROCEDURE CHANGES

In order to deal with the day-to-day management of the course, new procedures may be implemented from time to time throughout the semester. Such procedures will be announced in class sessions before they are implemented. It is the responsibility of the student to keep informed of such developments. All other matters that are not covered by this course outline are governed by official college policies and procedures.

Students are advised to read the section "Academic Policies and Procedures" on-line in the current College calendar. <http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/>

Midterm Exam 2	April 3 rd	25%

ASSIGNMENTS/EXAMS AND EXPECTATIONS:

Annotated Bibliography (15%): Due on February 6th

For this assignment you are expected to prepare an annotated bibliography which is a list of citations of books, articles, and other documents i.e. policy papers, research studies, the Internet. Each citation is followed by a brief (150-200 words 12 font 1.5 lined spaced) descriptive and evaluative paragraph, referred to as "the annotation". The purpose of the annotation is to inform the reader of the relevance, accuracy, and quality of the sources cited. Creating an annotated bibliography calls for the application of a variety of intellectual skills: concise exposition, succinct analysis, and informed library research.

Step 1: locate and record citations to books, periodicals, and documents that may contain useful information and ideas on your topic. In this case these citations have been provided to you.

Step 2: Briefly examine and review the actual items. Then choose those works that provide a variety of perspectives on your topic.

Step 3: Write a concise annotation that summarized the central theme and scope of the book, article, research study etc., Include one or more sentences that (s) evaluate the authority or background of the author, (b) comment on the intended audience, (c) compare or contrast this work with another you have cited, or (d) explain how this work illuminates your bibliography topic.

The annotated bibliography must contain 5 references and is due in Class on February 6th 2018. Please use the following articles for your annotated bibliography

Article 1:

Article 4:

Book Chapter:

Select one chapter of your choice from the book: Bishop, A. (2002). Becoming an Ally: Breaking the Cycle of Oppression in People. London & New York: Fernwood Publishing.

Discussion Groups: (5% each) on January 30th, February 6th and February 20th

There are three discussion groups scheduled this semester which are based on the work contained in your annotated bibliography and related course material. You are expected to work in groups to answer questions, with a one page summary to be submitted to the instructor at the end of the allotted time, and then a larger group seminar style discussion related to social policy, anti-oppression and social justice. Each discussion group is worth 5% of your overall grade.

In-Class Presentation 15% (March 6 to April 10)

Students are required to select one of the topics discussed in the course from March 6 – April 3 which includes: Chapter 6, Chapter 8, Chapter 9, Chapter 12 or Chapter 14 and relate it to a current issue/affair and give an in-class presentation based on your research work. It is necessary that you incorporate one of the main social theories discussed in the course as a way to shed light on the issue. Please ensure that you supplement your presentation with added “credible” reference material – meaning, do not just use the text book as your only source of information. The presentation is due the week that your topic is scheduled for class discussion. Students are required to work in groups and to submit one presentation electronically in power point for the group to the instructor the day you are scheduled to present; each presenter will also be graded individually during their presentation.

Presentation Tips:

1. The presentation is shared equally among group members. It must not exceed 30 minutes or marks will be deducted.
2. You must use visual aids for your presentation i.e. power point
3. Do not copy every single word used by the author. Stress important points, and give reasons why you support or do not support the author’s perspectives
4. Speak clearly, slowly, and articulately
5. Avoid continual reading from your notes, and make eye contact with your audience
6. Ask and answer questions – part of your task is to facilitate group discussion
7. Present with confidence and remember to be yourself!

Midterm Exams (25%)

The midterm examinations will be held in class on Exam 1 February 27 and Exam 2 - April 10. The exam will consist of multiple choice questions, and short answer. You will be tested on all material including assigned readings, all lecture material, class discussions, and video presentations.

Participation Grade (5%)

Students are expected to attend class regularly and to read each assigned reading. Your attendance will be recorded. Students will not receive attendance marks if they are absent without cause. You will be assessed on: attendance and participation in discussion, and in class activities.

6. Grading System

- Standard Grading System (GPA)
- Competency Based Grading System
