COURSE POLICIES AND EXPECTATIONS

As your instructor, I teach to the learning outcomes, treat you fairly and respectfully, and make myself available to meet when possible outside of office hours. I will provide constructive, useful feedback on your written work; I will provide criteria for any evaluations in advance, as well as return assignments as soon as possible. Sometimes, given the marking workload of an English instructor, this may take a couple of weeks, but you can always ask for informal feedback while waiting.

As students, you are required to attend all classes for the full class period, and actively contribute to classroom discussion and activities. You need to submit hard/print copies of assignments at the beginning of class on the dates they are due, and to ask questions if you do not understand the material or expectations. You are also required to use instructor/peer comments and feedback to improve your future work, as well as share classroom conversational space/time, and respect all class members and your instructor. Please communicate, in advance, about any problems or concerns you may experience.

CONTACTING YOUR INSTRUCTOR

- You are encouraged to come to my office during the posted office hours. Please make an appointment for other times.
- I will respond to all emails, but depending on the volume of email I get, the response might take a day or so. Mostly, emails will be answered during regular working hours--not always on weekends or evenings.
- Outside Class Communication: Check your email regularly, as I will send your homework, and announcements that way. I will use the email address you submit during the first class; if you do not receive an email message from me within the first week, please let me know.

ATTENDANCE & PARTICIPATION

Regular attendance is essential to success in this course.

This class is exclusively face-to-face delivery; attendance is required for each and every class for the full class period. If you have a job or commitments that fall within, or close to, this time period, please reconsider taking this course at a different time. Your probability of passing the course without attending or attending infrequently is extremely slim. If you cannot attend for a valid reason, please email or call me ahead of time. You are responsible to learn the material covered during missed class days.

Emergency: You are responsible for contacting me via cell phone, email, or text message should you miss class, due to an emergency situation, when possible. Documentation to verify any emergencies (medical, accident, etc.) will be required the first day you return to class. Missed exams or assignments cannot be made up without this documentation. NOTE: Vacations, family visits, and/or plane tickets are not considered "emergencies."

ELECTRONIC DEVICES IN THE CLASSROOM

NO devices or laptops, including cell phones, can be used in class, unless supported by medical documentation. No texting—sorry—but it is too distracting! You will be asked to leave the class if you are texting, or checking your phone regularly.

LEARNING SUPPORT AND SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

There are a variety of services available for students to assist them throughout their learning. This information is available in the College Calendar, Student Services, or the College website at: <http://www.camosun.bc.ca>

STUDENT CONDUCT POLICY

It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with the content of the Camosun College Student Conduct policy. The policy is available in each School Administration Office, Registration, and on the College web site in the Policy Section <http://www.camosun.bc.ca/policies/E-2.5.pdf>

PLAGIARISM

- In all assignments, students are expected to do their own writing and editing. You may get feedback on your writing from Writing Center tutors in the Lansdowne Library. Plagiarism will incur any or all of the penalties as stated in the Camosun Arts & Science Academic Honesty Guidelines: <http://camosun.ca/learn/school/arts-science/images/Arts%20and%20Science%20Academic%20Honesty%20Guidelines.pdf>
Carefully read these guidelines.
- Copying another person's writing (even a single sentence) without proper documentation, or having someone else write all or part of your assignment is plagiarism. Editors should only offer advice or suggestions on how to improve your writing; they may not rewrite or correct your work!
- Any student found to have cheated on any assignment will automatically receive a mark of "0" on that assignment. Further penalties may apply; see the guidelines above.
