9. Student Conduct

I expect students to follow the College's Student Conduct Policy. As well as the following:

Make-up. There will be no make-up opportunities without a doctor's note (or equivalent). It is up to you to follow up and make arrangements to catch up on missed assignments/exams.

Exams must be written as scheduled. Make-up tests will only be allowed with proper documentation. You must contact the instructor prior to the test. The instructor will determine the alternate exam date and time.

Plagiarism. Assignments that are copied (identical or plagiarized) between students will be given 0% for ALL students with identical work.

Work must be used for this course only.

It is college policy that "If an instructor remains convinced that there has been a violation [such as plagiarism or cheating], he or she may assign a grade of F for the work involved, or for the course."

Electronic devices. No electronic devices are allowed during exams. This includes but is not limited to; computers, electronic dictionaries, electronic translators, cell phones, tablets, and other personal electronic devices.

Student's use of lap tops and tablets in class is restricted to note taking. Students using their laptops/tablets for other purposes will have their laptop privileges revoked. All cell phones must be turned off during class. Exceptions for emergency purposes only must be discussed with the instructor ahead of time.

Personal reflection. This course does require the student to examine her/his own life. Self understanding is beneficial in its own right and frequently leads to personal growth. Please note this course is not intended as a form of personal therapy. If course content or exercises results in significant distress the student is encouraged to utilize Camosun's counselling services (Dawson building room 202, ph 250-370-3571)

Sharing information. Students are encouraged to share information about themselves as relevant to the course. The expectation is that students will not share personal information learned about other students. However, students must be aware that this is a public venue and confidentiality cannot be assured.
