7. Recommendations to Assist Students to Succeed Throughout the Course

ELECTRONICS: Please turn off & put away all electronics for the duration of every class. This includes laptops, phones, translators, and recording devices. Notes can be taken by hand. Phones must be out of sight. If you are texting or surfing in class, I will ask you to leave.

IN-CLASS ASSIGNMENTS: Students who are absent without medical documentation will receive zero for any missed work. If you must legitimately be absent for some important reason, please speak to me ASAP. Having to work will not be considered a valid reason to miss class.

OUT OF CLASS ASSIGNMENTS: Late assignments will only be accepted for 3 days past the due date, will lose 5% per day, and will receive a grade only (no comments). If you must hand something in late, have a faculty member sign it with the date and time of submission before slipping it under my office door. Requests for extensions (for up to 3 days) will be considered under special circumstances, but only if the request is made at least 24 hours before due date. - I do not allow re-writes of any kind; we just do not have the time. I do not accept electronic submissions; I must have a paper copy of everything.

EXTRA HELP: The College provides many services, including a Writing Centre and a Language Help Centre. See Student Services, the College Calendar, or www.camosun.ca

PLAGIARISM: You must write your own papers and carefully document all your sources. Plagiarism is an academic offence that the college takes very seriously. Papers with any form of plagiarism will receive zero. If you are unsure if you are edging close to plagiarism, please talk to me, the Writing Centre or the Language Help Centre.

CONDUCT: Students are responsible for knowing the Student Conduct Policy. This document is available at Student Services, the School Administration Office, or www.camosun.ca in the 'Policy' section.

FOR YOUR RECORDS: Be sure to keep all rough drafts, final drafts, and graded material until end of term. In the event of a computer failure or grade discrepancy, these documents will be critical.

Tips for Success in English 151

Be punctual and be prepared: It is important that you have completed all assigned readings before coming to class ... on time. Since our class time will involve a lot of group discussion and group activities, you must also arrive prepared to intelligently and enthusiastically participate. What you are expected to have read and/or completed for any given date is listed on the schedule. It is your responsibility to come to class prepared.

Do not procrastinate on your assignments: You will be asked to take a mature, self-directed approach to your learning in this class. Some assignments will have little lecture time allotment; you must be self-regulating and self-scheduling. Your essays, too, if they are to be well written, will require several drafts and possibly consultation with the instructor, the Writing Centre, or the Language Help Centre. Start work on them early so that you can properly plan, research, and write in enough time to also revise and polish. It is your responsibility to read that assignment carefully to make sure you understand exactly what you are being asked to do. If you have questions about an assignment, ask them early in the process; it will save you time in the long run.

Submit assignments with correct formatting and documentation: Small, technical details of presentation do matter. Formatting guidelines and citation minutia may seem finicky, but mastering them is not difficult. Correct formatting and documentation adds credibility to your work by establishing your professionalism. Do sweat the small stuff!

Make a reliable friend in class: While students who regularly attend fare much better in the class, I do understand that you may need to miss a class. I will not be taking attendance, and you do not need to inform me if or why you must be absent. However, you are responsible for catching yourself up before returning to class. The first step is to borrow some thorough lecture notes from a reliable source. By all means, do see me in office hours if you need help understanding the material you have missed, but please only do this after you have tried to work through the material on your own; I can fill in the holes in your understanding, but I can't recap the entire lecture.

Make use of office hours (physical or virtual): Your writing strengths and weaknesses are uniquely yours. Please talk to me if you are having trouble with grammar, punctuation, or if you are unsure about your outline, thesis, topic sentences, etc. Consultation is also useful after assignments have been graded and returned; the best way to improve for the next assignment is to make sure you understand how to avoid the difficulties in the current assignment. You need not make an appointment if you come during scheduled hours. If those hours do not work for you, email me and we can find another time.
