2. Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course the student will be able to:

1. Describe the natural environmental processes that underlie natural hazards.
2. Explain how human development and planning influence natural hazard risk.
3. Use basic risk assessment and mitigation tools related to natural hazards.

3. Required Materials

(a) Texts

Keller, E.A., D.E. DeVecchio and J.J. Claque, 2015. Natural Hazards, 3rd Canadian Edition. Toronto: Pearson Education Canada, 504 pp.

- This is available in the book store, and there also will be a reserve copy in the library.

4. Course Content and Schedule

- Lectures: This class has 2 two-hour blocks on Tuesdays and Thursdays, from 8:30 – 10:30 am in Fisher 338. Attendance is essential. I will post lecture PowerPoint slides on D2L. Note, however, that these are heavy on pictures and light on words; there are no substitutes for coming to class! You will need to take detailed class notes and keep up with textbook reading assignments to optimize your learning experience.

- Readings are an essential part of this course – they provide depth and context that are indispensable to your understanding of the course material. Specific reading assignments are detailed below; these may be modified as the term goes on.
- Assignments: There are eight lab assignments. You can download these from the course web site on D2L. Time to work on labs will be provided every class. You may work with others, but each student must write their own individual answers unless instructed otherwise. Attendance of labs is very important. No credit will be given for wrong answers or missed activities due to unexcused absence from lab. Printed copies of answers are due a week after the lab period unless otherwise noted. Late assignments are subject to a 10% per day penalty, and will NOT be accepted after I have returned them marked.
- Exams: There will be a midterm and a final exam. The format for these will be a combination of multiple choice, short answer and long answer questions. They mainly will emphasize the lecture material, though lab material will also be drawn upon. The final exam will be cumulative.
- Illness, etc: If you miss a lab or exam due to illness or some other serious reason, I must ask you to provide a doctor's note or other documentation to support your story. Otherwise, a mark of zero for the missed assignment will be given. Exams and field trips are hard to reschedule, so try not to miss them unless you are too sick to perform at a normal level.

Students who miss an exam for a valid reason must contact me within 24 hours with an explanation. In such cases, one makeup exam time will be scheduled, and all students needing it will be expected to attend.
