2. Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course a student will be able to:

1. Form critical responses to ideas.
  - Distinguish between fact and opinion.
  - Analyse and articulate the reasoning behind an argument.
  - Demonstrate a critical examination of ideas through close reading, inquiry, divergent thinking, evaluation of evidence and interpretation, as well as an understanding of rhetoric, reason, logic and word usage.
  - Produce writing under exam conditions, as well as outside class.
  - Differentiate academic and non-academic writing.
2. Write in an academic style common to multiple disciplines.
  - Approach writing as an active exploration of multiple perspectives on a topic.
  - Compose effective summaries.
  - Select and use rhetorical patterns purposefully.
  - Employ a comprehensive writing process, which includes prewriting, focusing, planning, multiple drafting, conferring, revising and editing/proofing.
  - Develop an argument with a controlling thesis; write unified, coherent paragraphs, including effective introductions, transitions and conclusions in correct, clear, effective English.
  - Develop effective, focused research questions.
  - Demonstrate control, clarity and cohesion in the development and organization of ideas.
  - Vary style purposefully for planned rhetorical strategies.
  - Write for specific results.
  - Critique his/her own and others' writing.
3. Read and analyze complex texts from various academic disciplines.
  - Vary reading approaches for different purposes, such as personal response, persuasion, and criticism.
  - Participate and engage in a dynamic, stimulating exchange of ideas based upon close textual readings.

- Discuss and debate text using terminology appropriate to the discipline and context of those texts.
  - Analyze textual readings, which may include visual texts, by identifying controlling ideas, supporting details, dominant rhetorical pattern, subtext, tone and stylistic features.
  - Summarize readings to reflect coherently the original's ideas, purpose, organization, and tone.
  - Critically read your own and others' writing.
4. Demonstrate information literacy skills.
    - Determine the nature and extent of the information needed.
    - Know and use what information resources are available, in different formats.
    - Use print and electronic resources effectively and efficiently.
    - Evaluate sources for authority, relevance, reliability, currency and other criteria.
    - Incorporate and integrate research through correct use of summary, paraphrase and quotation.
    - Document sources fully and ethically, according to specified bibliographic conventions.
  5. Develop self-awareness as an academic writer and contributor.
    - Articulate one's position in a critical debate of ideas.
    - Reflect on one's own writing for continuous improvement.

Standard Grading System (GPA)

Competency Based Grading System

7. Recommended Materials to Assist Students to Succeed Throughout the Course

- All readings must be completed before the class assigned to them.
- Bring the readings with you to class. Bring the readings with you to class.
- Participation is worth a hefty 10%, so please bring your brilliant ideas and observations to class too. To do this, you must also attend class. Attending class, preparing well and bringing an inquisitive, generous and energetic spirit not only shows all of us you respect the learning environment, it will put you in a great position to succeed on the assignments. This will be the easiest 10% you make all year so make the most of it. And, of course, the more we participate, the more fun we all will have. It will be so much fun I can't stand it.
- An (important) note on attendance. This course is not comprised simply of assignments to check off. It also includes a number of classroom hours where you are expected to listen, digest and reflect on the knowledge we all bring to the learning experience. When you miss a class, not only do you miss out on the material, your colleagues miss out on your contributions and receptiveness. Obviously, you all have lives outside of this classroom and the unexpected waits for us all. I promise I will meet any note that you must miss a class with compassion and accommodation. That said, to reflect the importance of attendance, I reserve the right to refuse any assignments by a student who has missed more than 25% of class time (i.e. SEVEN unexcused absences).
- Start working right away. Life comes at you fast. And by life, I mean deadlines. Don't procrastinate, do the readings and don't underestimate how long an assignment will take. If you get a disappointing grade on an early assignment, make adjustments – don't assume the same level of work will get you a better mark later. Spoiler: it won't.
- Deadlines: Deadlines are organized to facilitate marking and returning papers in a timely manner, and to give you the greatest benefit from feedback for future assignments. They also establish that I am a human, with a life, and give me some surety around which I may organize this life.

Late assignments will be docked a 5% per day penalty. Assignments will not be accepted one week after the deadline. However, you have a one-time amnesty for a single take-home assignment. This is to recognize that you, too, are humans with lives, and that sometimes those get in the way of coursework. I want to give you the best chance to succeed in the course, but please respect the above. You must let me know in advance of the deadline that an assignment will be late.

Late work may not be handed back in a timely manner and may not receive extensive feedback.
- I prefer printed copies of all assignments. This allows me to give the best feedback. If you are unable to submit printed copies of assignments for whatever reason, PLEASE SUBMIT THEM THROUGH D2L'S ASSIGNMENT TOOL. Do not email me assignments.
- As a courtesy to everyone else in the class, please turn off all devices (for example, cell phones and laptops) and pay attention to whomever is speaking.

- Any submission of work that is not the student's or work that is not appropriately attributed to the original source constitutes plagiarism. The college considers plagiarism a serious offence and any attempt to deceive the instructor with plagiarized work will be met with serious consequences, which will at a minimum include a zero on the assignment and could include an F in the course.
- Make use of my office hours and email. It is my sincere hope that we can work together to become better writers and thinkers. A 5-10 minute chat in my office about a paper, an essay or a topic can do wonders. If you are unclear about assignments, about a grade, about anything, visit my office hours or write me a thoughtful email. This will not only help your grade it will help me become a better teacher.

8. College Supports, Services and Policies

Immediate, Urgent, or Emergency Support

If you or someone you know requires immediate, urgent, or emergency support (e.g. illness, injury, thoughts of suicide, sexual assault, etc.), SEEK HELP. ## B. Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/index.html> for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete: A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that are designed to have an anticipated enrollment that extends beyond one term. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course.
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.
