5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

- (a) Assignments: There will be 6 of these in total asking you to apply behavioural concepts to a case study (observations in field, case files, your own behavior, etc.). They take approximately 1 hour each to complete. The top five scores count for 11% each toward your final grade for a total of 55% from assignments. Due Dates:

Assignments 1 and 2: January 31st in drop-box by 11:59 PM (or any time before that date)
 Assignments 3 and 4: February 28th in drop-box by 11:59 PM (or any time before that date)
 Assignments 5 and 6: March 31st in drop-box by 11:59 PM (or any time before that date)

- (b) Quizzes: There will be six multiple choice quizzes that are open book, and intended to make sure that you read and understood the content. Each of these will be worth 4% for a total of 24% from quizzes.

Due Dates for Quizzes:

Quiz 1: January 8th by 11:59 PM (or before that date) – completion of this quiz confirms registration in this course

Quizzes 2 and 3: February 28th (or before that date)

Quizzes 4, 5 and 6: March 31st (or before that date)

- (c) Acceptance and Commitment Therapy Application: Acceptance and Commitment therapy is an exciting tool in behavior analysis. You'll learn its basic tenets and how to apply them to your own goals, and thought and feelings that might be getting in the way of those goals. You'll work through an example from your own life and that write-up will be worth 16% of your final grade.

This module and assignment will be available to you on the first day of class, but won't be due until April 5th in drop-box by 11:59 PM or before

- (d) Special Interest Topics Discussion Posts: Toward the end of the course, I will be posting little special interest modules on behaviours such as lying, procrastination, addictions, depression/anxiety/bipolar, etc. You'll be asked just to read through 2 of those modules that are of interest, and write a little discussion post about your reaction, resources you might have come across, questions and comments. Each of these will be worth 2.5% for a total of 5%.

These will be posted by February 15th and can be posted any time between then and April 5th.
