COURSE OUTLINE

Course Description:

This course examines the historical development of modern, capitalist society with an emphasis on contemporary processes of globalization. It introduces students to the economic, political, and cultural aspects of capitalism as they apply to Canada and the world. Topics include liberalism and neoliberalism, development and global poverty, imperialism and neocolonialism, global citizenship and the anti-globalization movement.

Ω Please note: This outline will not be kept indefinitely. It is recommended students keep this outline for their records, especially to assist in transfer credit to post-secondary institutions.

5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

(a) Seminar preparation (45%):	Ten times during the term, there will be portion of the class that will be conducted as a seminar (small group discussion of a reading). Prior to the appropriate seminar, you must submit a summary of the reading, some initial thoughts about it, and three discussion questions for your peers. Attendance at the appropriate seminar is a prerequisite for your assignment receiving a grade. Each seminar is worth 5% of your final grade; lowest mark dropped.
(b) Research Papers (45%):	Research paper outline (5%): You must submit an outline for a research paper. You will be given a choice of topics. More information on this assignment will be provided in class. Research paper #1 (15%): You must submit a 750+ word research paper. You will be given a choice of topics. More information on this assignment will be provided in class. Research paper #2 (25%): You must submit a 1500+ word research paper. You will be given a choice of topics. More information on this assignment will be provided in class.
(d) Class Participation (10%)	Throughout the term, there will be small group assignments to be completed in class. You will receive credit for participating in each of these assignments, which will total 5% of your final grade.

Missed Assignment Policy

If you do not hand in a research paper on time and you have a reasonable excuse (illness, accident, family affliction, religious obligations, etc.), please contact me as soon as possible to arrange a new due date for the missed assignment. If you do not have a reasonable excuse, I will accept late assignments with a daily penalty 5% per day.

If you do not finish a seminar preparation, or you miss the seminar itself, and you have a reasonable excuse, please contact me to arrange a way to make up the mark. If you do not have a reasonable excuse, any missed seminar or seminar assignment will receive a grade of zero.

If you do not complete all required work for this course, you may be denied a passing grade.

2. Competency Based Grading System (Non GPA)

This grading system is based on satisfactory acquisition of defined skills or successful completion of the course learning outcomes

Grade	Description
COM	The student has met the goals, criteria, or competencies established for this course, practicum or field placement.
DST	The student has met and exceeded, above and beyond expectation, the goals, criteria, or competencies established for this course, practicum or field placement.
NC	The student has not met the goals, criteria or competencies established for this course, practicum or field placement.

B. Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/index.html> for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete: A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that are designed to have an anticipated enrollment that extends beyond one term. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course.
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.
