Study Art at home online?

Do set up your own studio, no worries about carrying supplies or drawings back and forth to class, no need to take transit or drive to the college. Work on your own and do in-class exercises with fellow students. You can review class recordings and view videos again and again. Use D2L to submit assignments. Online is a safe way to study and not feel isolated.

1:00pm-3:00pm non synchronous hours - individual students should book a time with instructor of the course by email: asking questions or collaborations

5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

- (a) Assignments: there are 3 different printmaking plates/process to work with:
- (b) Lino, Mono and Collograph

- (c) Each printmaking process will take approx. 3-4 week duration and must include 3-5 preliminary drawings with a review with fellow students and instructor before carving/printing your blocks.
- (d) An edition of 3 is required for each print process - an edition means that all 3 prints are exactly the same No variation!
- (e) You may also experiment with alternative prints, using rainbow rolls, chine colle, text, double printing and ghost printing.
- (f) Each print process when complete will be reviewed by your instructor and fellow students in an online critique session
- (g) Other (Attendance, Completing Assignments, Group Work)
