IMPORTANT COURSE PRINCIPLES

1. Your happiness and well-being as a student are important to me and are important factors in your success. And this is a very strange time to be a student. SO, please contact me if I can help you navigate through the college system in any way (even if the issue relates to another course).
2. To complete this course with a passing grade, ALL four major assignments must be completed (i.e. the two essays and two exams).
3. Students who cannot pass the exams will not pass the course. Please contact me if this worries you.
4. Assignments are due on the due date. I will be asking you to submit your assignments electronically to the correct dropbox. It's your responsibility to make certain you have uploaded your file on time, and that it is the correct version.

Unless we negotiate otherwise (under exceptional circumstances), late assignments will be accepted for one full week after the initial due date with a penalty of 5% per day, but these assignments will receive no written comments (only a grade).

After one week, late assignments will not be accepted at all. Please keep track of deadlines. You are welcome to discuss your work with me in detail at any time (before or after the due date).

5. At the college level, we assume basic literacy and mechanical polish in all assignments. This means that a paper with significant grammatical errors will not pass no matter how wonderful the ideas are. Also, please note that “re-writes” are not accepted except under extraordinary circumstances.
6. According to college policy, you will need to confirm your presence in this course by Tuesday, September 8 at 5 p.m. or earlier in order to retain your spot. (This allows the college to ascertain whether to offer space to waitlisted students.)
