Recording Learning Journal: For each lesson, students are required to demonstrate learning of the content from each class. For this assignment students will make notes of grammar points and the examples of sentences to indicate each grammar point by using the textbook or class PowerPoints. Then students will create their own sentences and record those composed sentences. At the end of each lesson, students will submit the assignment. Evidence of using any translators will result in a zero on the assignment. For Hangeul, a few voice recordings will be required. Details will be provided on the D2L.

Online Exercises: The purpose of the exercises is to practice grammar, vocabulary, listening and reading comprehension. After each class, the exercises will be announced or posted on D2L. Students' mark for the exercises is not based on the number of correct answers, but rather on thorough completion and your improvement of understanding of the class content.

Vocabulary Exercises: This assignment is to facilitate learning vocabulary. Students are required to complete a variety of activities online.

Oral interview: Students will have an interview with your instructor at the end of the semester. A list of questions will be provided in advance. Details will be discussed in class.

Open-Book Quizzes: There will be Hangeul and lesson quizzes to facilitate understanding of Korean language taught in class. For Hangeul quiz, it will include mainly identifying target Hangeul sounds and writing basic sounds. For lesson quizzes, it will include listening comprehension and sentence building, etc. Quizzes will be cumulative; each quiz will increase in value by 1%. Quiz #1=5%, #2=6%, #3=7%, #4=8%, #5=9%.

Class Readiness & Participation: For the synchronous class, it is important to attend class regularly and to be prepared for each class while you are learning a new language. Students are also expected to study on their own such as watching a video clip and doing vocabulary exercises before the class and to participate in a variety of class activities as a group. It is expected for students to submit their practice as requested. Student participations will be monitored in each class.

MAKE-UP for missed quizzes or interviews are available due to your illness or accidents, etc, please notify the instructor before the due date to make an alternative arrangement.
