4. Course Content and Schedule

This course focuses on the way in which people's thoughts, feelings and behaviors are influenced by the presence of other people. It may include such topics as attitude change, propaganda, prejudice, cults, conformity, obedience, group influence, altruism, aggression, love, and attribution theory.

See Course Schedule at the end of the syllabus for more detail.

5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

Tests three tests (20%, 25%, 30%) 75%

There will be three, non-cumulative tests. The tests will be composed of multiple choice, matching, T/F, short answer and long answer questions. The third test will be scheduled during the exam period.

Tests must be written as scheduled. As per Camosun College policy, make-up tests will only be allowed with proper documentation. You must contact the instructor within five days of missing a test. The instructor will determine the alternate exam date and time.

Research Project and Application Paper 20%

Research Project (10%)

Students will use course content to design a research study that could be conducted in the field of social psychology. Students will need to provide a write-up that includes: a literature review, hypothesis, method, anticipated results, discussion, limitations, and possible directions for future research.

Application Paper (10%)

Students will analyze a real life situation using the concepts of social psychology. Details will be provided in class and posted on D2L

Participation 5%

Participation includes behavior that demonstrates a commitment to the course. This includes: being prepared for the course each week with attendance and contributions to the discussion board, being mindful of others and demonstrating respect for the learning environment, effective communication skills

See Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/index.html> for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete: A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that are designed to have an anticipated enrollment that extends beyond one term. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course.
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.

7. Recommended Materials to Assist Students to Succeed Throughout the Course

LEARNING SUPPORT AND SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

There are a variety of services available for students to assist them throughout their learning. This information is available in the College calendar, at Student Services, or the College web site at camosun.ca.

STUDENT CONDUCT POLICY

There is a Student Conduct Policy which includes plagiarism. The policy outlines the rights and responsibilities of students. It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with the content of this policy. The policy is available in each School Administration Office, at Student Services, and the College web site in the Policy Section.

College Policies	Camosun has policies on grading, academic offences, resolution procedures, and consequent sanctions. Please familiarize yourself with these policies (see 2017-2018 College calendar)
Attendance, assignments (i.e. papers) and exams	Attendance is important because it keeps you in contact with the course materials and any changes that may occur throughout the semester. A missed exam or assignment will result in a mark of zero. Unfortunately, make-up exams will not be offered unless there is a serious medical or compassionate reason that you would like considered. Contact the instructor before the test or due date. Time management issues and competing priorities are NOT sufficient reasons. Documentation to support your claim is always required (i.e. physician's note explaining why you could not attend the exam). A reduction in assignment/exam grade may also apply, depending on the situation. The instructor will determine the alternate exam date/time as required.
