COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

Online Exercises: The purpose of the exercises is to practice grammar, vocabulary, listening and reading comprehension. After each class, the exercises will be announced or posted on D2L. Students' marks for the exercises is not based on the number of correct answers, but rather on thorough completion and your demonstration of understanding the class content. If the first attempt is submitted without thorough completion, no score will be given to the exercise. If it shows no attempt made to improve your understanding of the content, the score will be based on only the number of correct answers. Details will be discussed in class.

Oral Assessments: For the assignments, there will be two interviews and a self introduction. For the interviews, students will write interview questions and possible answers, and after practicing submit a video recording. It can be done individually or in pairs. For the self introduction, students will write a script about themselves and make an audio recording. Details will be discussed in class.

Written Homework: During or after each lesson there will be sentence building exercises and small compositions to be completed. Students are required to correct their errors after receiving feedback and resubmit the improved versions. If the improved version is not submitted, the full score won't be given. Evidence of using any translators will result in a zero on the assignment. Details will be discussed in class.

Quizzes: The goal of these quizzes is to facilitate understanding of Korean language taught through each lesson. Each quiz will include grammar features, reading comprehension, sentence building and listening comprehension, etc.

Class & Lab Participation: Students are expected to be in class on time. It is important to attend class regularly and to be prepared for each class while you are learning a new language. Students are also expected to be attentive and respectful in class, and to participate in class activities sincerely such as practicing a role play or writing a composition, etc. Student participation will be monitored in each class and distracting, or disrespectful behaviors will be noted and will result in point deductions.

Typing in Korean: It is important to learn to write in Korean and it is also very important to practice typing in Korean to do some of the classwork. Most of the modern communication is done through typing these days (e.g., email and chatting).

Make-Up for missed quizzes is available due to your illness or accidents, etc., please notify the instructor before the due date to make an alternative arrangement.

Late Assignments won't receive feedback from the instructor. Late assignments won't be accepted after 7 days from the due date unless a student makes an alternative arrangement with the instructor prior to the due date. After the last day of class, late assignments won't be accepted without prior consent.

Study Attitudes

For language learning, it is important to practice the target language regularly as often as you can to store it in long-term memory. Cramming right before the quiz usually results in quickly forgetting it again. Throughout the semester, you will have lots of opportunities to apply what you learned to make your own sentences and practice your speaking. Most of the marking is based on your sincere effort and completion. In other words, there is no place for any kinds of translators for the assignments. It is so obvious if a translator is used. In that case, you not only lose marks for the assignment but also forego the opportunity to learn. As you are a beginner, what you want to say is very limited, but you will learn to communicate within our class level. After each assignment is submitted, I will try to give feedback as soon as possible, hoping that you will learn from the feedback. Please keep up with the assignment deadline not to fall behind the class. If you need any clarification or help, please contact me as soon as possible. I am happy to work with you. That is the purpose of office hours. Take full advantage of contacting your instructor. Acquiring another language takes time and practice and there will be ups and downs on your journey to achieve the goal. It is important to stay motivated and keep learning. It will be a pleasure to see you succeed in learning Korean.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.
