MEETING WITH THE INSTRUCTOR:

Email: I teach a number of classes and have between 80-120 students in a semester. I do not email on weekends but will respond to you within 24 hours from Monday to Friday. When emailing me please include your first and last name, the name of the class and section number, and an appropriate subject in the subject line (e.g. Max Palmer, Soc 160-1 re: assignment question). In Person: I have regular office hours on-line or by appointment. My experience teaching shows that students often ask the same questions through email, and for consistency and knowledge sharing purposes, I will address most general questions in our newsfeed. If you have more specific questions related to content you would like to discuss in more detail then I encourage you to come visit me during my on-line office hours. If you require an appointment, we can make arrangements to connect on-line or by phone outside of my regular office hours.

PROCEDURE CHANGES

In order to deal with the day-to-day management of the course, new procedures may be implemented from time to time throughout the semester. Such procedures will be announced via our newsfeed before they are implemented. It is the responsibility of the student to keep informed of such developments. All other matters that are not covered by this course outline are governed by official college policies and procedures.

ASSIGNMENTS/TEST EXPECTATIONS:

Written Assignments: (15% each)

There are two written assignments scheduled this semester which are based in related course material. You are expected to answer questions described below and then prepare an individual 3-4 pages 12 font single spaced typed assignment to be submitted to the instructor on the due date indicated in your course outline and D2L. Each written assignment is worth 15% of your overall grade. You will be required to provide APA citations for each of your assignment response questions.

Assignment 1- Social Stratification and Inequality -Due February 8th

Prepare a 3-4 pages 12 font single spaced individual response that answers these questions which should be uploaded to D2L in the assignment folder. You will be required to provide APA citations for each of your assignment response questions.

1. What is Social Stratification? How is Social Stratification related to Social Inequality?
2. When the Vertical Mosaic by Sociologist John Porter first appeared in 1965, it became an instant classic. Why?
3. Define the vertical mosaic and explain why it is still relevant today in Canadian society.

Assignment 2- Indigenous Peoples, Racism and Settler Colonialism – Due April 12th

Prepare a 3-4 pages 12 font single spaced individual response that answers these questions which should be uploaded to D2L in the assignment folder. You will be required to provide APA citations for each of your assignment response questions.

1. What have been the impacts of Colonialism on Indigenous Peoples in Canada?
2. What is racism?
3. What have been the impacts of racism on Indigenous Peoples?

Tests (15% each):

The examinations will be held during the weeks of Monday February 22 from 9:00 AM to Tuesday February 23 11:59 PM and Monday March 22 from 9:00 AM to March 23 at 11:59 PM. This means that you will have slightly over 24 hours to complete the tests. The tests will consist of short answer questions, and one long answer. You will be tested on all material including assigned readings, lecture material, and video presentations. You will be required to provide APA citations for each of your test response questions.

Short Quizzes (4% each)

Each quiz will have 10 question (Multiple choice and True/False) and is worth 4% each. There will be 10 short quizzes throughout the semester and will be completed each week during the specified time period. Out of fairness to other students, quizzes missed due to an un-excused absence cannot be made up. Material covered up to and including the class prior to the quiz is subject for inclusion in the quizzes. The quizzes are used as a tool to help you build your knowledge base each week and are a way to prepare you for the tests.

6. Grading System

- Standard Grading System (GPA)
- Competency Based Grading System

7. Recommended Materials to Assist Students to Succeed Throughout the Course

2. Competency Based Grading System (Non GPA)

This grading system is based on satisfactory acquisition of defined skills or successful completion of the course learning outcomes

Grade	Description
COM	The student has met the goals, criteria, or competencies established for this course, practicum or field placement.
DST	The student has met and exceeded, above and beyond expectation, the goals, criteria, or competencies established for this course, practicum or field placement.
NC	The student has not met the goals, criteria or competencies established for this course, practicum or field placement.

B. Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/index.html> or information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete: A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that are designed to have an anticipated enrollment that extends beyond one term. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course.
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.
