COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

- All readings must be completed BEFORE the class assigned to them. Bring the readings with you to class.
- Participation is worth a hefty 10%, so please bring your brilliant ideas and observations to class. Attending class, preparing well, and bringing an inquisitive, generous, and energetic spirit not only shows all of us you respect the learning environment, but it will also put you in a great position to succeed on the assignments.

Given that we live in uncertain times, you are encouraged to stay home if you feel ill. If you are unable to come to class, there are other ways to participate: through online discussion groups, my office hours, or over email.

This will be the easiest 10% you make all year so make the most of it. And, of course, the more we participate, the more fun we all will have. It will be so much fun I can’t stand it.

- Start working right away. Life comes at you fast. And by life, I mean deadlines. Don’t procrastinate, do the readings, and don’t underestimate how long an assignment will take. If you get a disappointing grade on an early assignment, make adjustments – don’t assume the same level of work will get you a better mark later.

- Deadlines: Deadlines are organized to facilitate marking and returning papers in a timely manner, and to give you the greatest benefit from feedback for future assignments. They also establish that I am a human, with a life, and give me some surety around which I may organize this life.

Late assignments will be docked a 5% per day penalty. However, you have a one-time amnesty for a single take-home assignment. This is to recognize that you, too, are humans with lives, and that sometimes those get in the way of coursework. I want to give you the best chance to succeed in the course, but please respect the above. You must let me know in advance of the deadline that an assignment will be late.

Late work may not be handed back in a timely manner and may not receive extensive feedback.

- Any student who faces challenges securing their food or housing and believes this may affect their performance in the course is urged to contact the appropriate Camosun services (listed below) for support. If you are comfortable in doing so, please notify me of any challenges you're facing. This will enable me to accommodate your challenge and provide any support I am able.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.
