COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

Online Exercises: The purpose of the exercises is to practice grammar, vocabulary, listening and reading comprehension. After each class, the exercises will be announced or posted on D2L. Students' marks for the exercises are not based on the number of correct answers, but rather on thorough completion and demonstration of understanding the class content. If the first attempt is submitted without thorough completion, no score will be given to the exercise. If it shows that no attempt was made to improve understanding of the content, the score will be based only on the number of correct answers. Details will be discussed in class.

Oral Assessments: There will be 3 oral assessments; (1) reading, (2) interview, and (3) self-introduction. For the reading, students are required to make an audio recording of a randomly assigned short passage or dialogue. For the interview, students will write interview questions and possible answers, and after practicing submit a video recording with a script. It can be done individually or in pairs. For the self-introduction, students will write a script about themselves and make an audio/video recording. Details will be discussed in class.

Writing & Reading Practices: During or after each lesson there will be class handouts, ongoing sentence building exercises and three compositions to be completed based on examples presented in each lesson. For the Hangeul, students will make an audio recording of their reading. For the sentence building exercises and the compositions, students are required to write their own sentences and compositions and then make an audio recording of their writing. Students are required to correct their errors after receiving feedback and to resubmit the improved versions. If the improved version is not submitted, the full score won't be given. Evidence of using any translators will result in a zero on the assignment. Details will be discussed in class.

Quizzes: There will be Hangeul and lesson quizzes to facilitate understanding of the Korean language taught in class. The Hangeul quiz will include mainly identifying target Hangeul sounds and writing basic sounds. Lesson quizzes will include vocabulary, grammar features, reading comprehension, and listening comprehension etc. Quizzes will be cumulative; each quiz will increase in value by 1%. Quiz #1=7%, #2=8%, #3=9%, #4=10%, #5=11%.

Class & Lab Participation: Students are expected to be in class on time. It is important to attend class regularly and to be prepared for each class while you are learning a new language. Students are also expected to be attentive and respectful in class, and to participate in class activities sincerely such as practicing a role play or writing a composition, etc. Student participation will be monitored in each class and distracting, or disrespectful behaviors will be noted and will result in point deductions.

Typing in Korean: It is important to learn to write in Korean and it is also very useful to learn typing in Korean as most modern communication is done through typing these days (e.g., email and chatting). Some of the classwork can be done by typing.

Make-Up for missed quizzes is available due to illness or accident, etc., please notify the instructor before the due date to make an alternative arrangement.

Late Assignments won't receive feedback from the instructor. Late assignments won't be accepted after 7 days from the due date unless a student makes an alternative arrangement with the instructor prior to the due date. After the last day of class, late assignments won't be accepted without prior consent.

Study Attitudes

For language learning, it is important to practice the target language regularly as often as you can to store it in long-term memory. Cramming right before the quiz usually results in quickly forgetting it again. Throughout the semester, you will have lots of opportunities to apply what you learned to make some short conversations and practice your speaking. Most of the marking is based on your sincere effort and completion. In other words, there is no place for using any kind of translator for the assignments. It is very obvious if a translator is used. In that case, you not only lose marks for the assignment but also forego the opportunity to learn. As you are a beginner, what you want to say is very limited, but you will learn to communicate within our class level. After each assignment is submitted, I will try to give feedback as soon as possible, hoping that you will learn from the feedback. If you need any clarification or help, please contact me as soon as possible. I am happy to work with you. That is the purpose of office hours. Take full advantage of contacting your instructor. Acquiring another language takes time and practice and there will be ups and downs on your journey to achieve the goal. It is important to stay motivated and keep learning. It will be a pleasure to see you succeed in learning Korean.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.
