INSTRUCTOR DETAILS

NAME: Dr. Christian Lieb

EMAIL: LiebC@camosun.bc.ca

OFFICE: Young 323 (Lansdowne)

HOURS: Mondays and Wednesdays, 12:30-2:30 or by appointment

As your course instructor, I endeavour to provide an inclusive learning environment. However, if you experience barriers to learning in this course, do not hesitate to discuss them with me. Camosun College is committed to identifying and removing institutional and social barriers that prevent access and impede success.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

Students will examine the events leading to the outbreak of the Second World War in East Asia and in Europe before covering the conflict itself. Students will learn how public perception of military conflict changed, and examine the use of propaganda and censorship to maintain support for the war. This course will cover not only military campaigns, but will also explore the impacts of war on the home fronts and colonized peoples, and the treatment of racialized minorities especially in the Holocaust.

PREREQUISITE(S):

One of:

- C+ in English 12
- C in Camosun Alternative

CO-REQUISITE(S):

Not Applicable

EXCLUSION(S):

Students who have completed HIST 290 Special Topics (World War II) will not receive credit for HIST 150.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of this course a student will be able to:

1. Explain the compounding factors that led to the radicalization of global politics and the outbreak of the Second World War in East Asia and Europe.
2. Examine how theories of war and public perception of military conflict changed from 1914 to 1945.
3. Describe the impact of war on racialized minorities and colonized peoples.
4. Assess the “home fronts” and the impact of war on non-combatants.
5. Identify, analyze, and describe the types of propaganda and censorship used on all sides to maintain support for the war effort.
6. Demonstrate critical thinking skills by evaluating the arguments put forward by historians and weighing the evidence they present on key historical debates such as appeasement, the resistance or collaboration of civilians under occupation, strategic bombing, and the participation of soldiers in atrocities.
7. Describe how the processes that led to the political, economic, and social destabilization of the international order in the 1930s shape contemporary issues.
8. Communicate a view point clearly, both orally and in writing.

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

Course Requirements:

Attendance Note:

The first information that you will need to submit is an attendance note, whether you are in the class or on the waitlist. Since there is a waitlist for this course, please e-mail a note to me at LiebC@camosun.bc.ca to confirm your attendance by 5 pm on Tuesday Sept. 7 (i.e. the first day of classes). This is important as this attendance note will hold your space in the course. To ensure that waitlisted students will have a chance to take the course, I will begin the deregistration process for students who have not submitted the attendance note by Wednesday Sept. 8.

In your attendance note, please provide a little bit of information about yourself:

- Your name / student number
- Are you located in Canada or elsewhere?
- Have you taken any other college / university History courses?
- Have you taken history in high school, or is the subject completely new to you? This is an introductory course so no prior knowledge is necessary – but feedback on this will help me get a better sense of the class composition.
- What is your interest in taking this History course? Is there a specific topic, theme, or event that you would like to learn more about?

The level of detail you provide in this attendance note is voluntary, and whether you choose to answer all the questions is up to you, but I will need the note itself to confirm your attendance.

In addition to the attendance note, to pass the course, you must submit the two Article Analyses (i.e. the written commentary and analysis for two of the four assigned academic journal articles).

You must also submit the two map assignments and write the midterm and final exam replacement papers (two short papers for each) to complete the requirements. If, for whatever reasons (i.e. personal or health), you are unable to meet these requirements, please e-mail me, if at all possible, before the deadline or exam, so that we can find a solution.

1) Article Analyses (30% - 2x15%):

You will be writing two article analyses (750-1000 words each). You will have the choice to write on one of the two assigned articles before the midterm and one after the midterm exam. The deadline for the article analysis is the week when that article was assigned (see course schedule below and on D2L for details). In each article analysis, you will be asked to:

- Identify the main argument - what exactly is the thesis statement?
- Briefly summarize the article (i.e. what does it tell you about the topic)
- In the next section, please identify what types of sources the author used and discuss how convincingly the article was supported with specific evidence.
- Each article topic will have a short introduction and guiding questions on D2L (see the weekly entries for more details). Please answer these questions in your response, supported by specific evidence from the reading.
- All information taken from the articles need to be properly footnoted with the exact page number for the source of the details – see History Department Style Guide on D2L.

Guiding questions will be posted on D2L in the weekly schedule, so please make sure to look for those. This will help you to focus your thoughts for the reading of academic journal articles and will train you to identify the main arguments and factual evidence presented in the texts. For an excellent grade, the article analysis should be clear and well-written, show a strong understanding of the content of the reading, include your own thoughts and analysis, support your response with specific evidence from the reading, and cite that evidence with footnotes. As academic papers, these assignments will require proper Chicago Style (Turabian) footnoting – please see the History Department Style Guide on D2L for more details.

Please be aware that students are expected to read all of the six assigned readings, even though you are only required to respond to two of them with these article analyses. All the assigned readings are fair game for the exams.

2) Map Assignments (20% - 2x10%)

There will be two map assignments, one covering Europe, the other East Asia. Since geography played a significant role in the planning for the war and the strategic imperatives of the campaigns, this assignment is designed to familiarize students with important countries, regions, and specific locations (i.e. of territories and resources) that we will encounter in this course. This assignment will require some independent research online and from textbook readings. More details will be provided on the map sheets that are available on D2L. The two assignments are due at midnight on Wednesday Sept. 15 and Sept. 22, 2021 respectively (see lecture schedule below) – please submit them as either PDF, WORD, or JPEG (photo) files into the course drop-box on D2L, but make sure all the information is fully legible.

3) Midterm Exam (25% - 10% and 15% for the two essays):

In lieu of the regular midterm exam we will have two 500-600-word essay responses that will include questions on material from lectures and the textbook covered to that point in the course and potentially also the discussion readings. The aim will be to combine your textbook, article readings and the material from the audio-lectures with Powerpoint (on D2L) to demonstrate contextual understanding of developments relevant to the course. The questions for the two papers will be posted on D2L a week before the due date and will be submitted online through the D2L submission box at midnight on Wednesday Oct. 27, 2021 – please combine the two responses into a single Word or PDF document.

4) Final Exam (25% - 10% and 15% for the two essays):

Similar to the Midterm exam, in the final exam, you will be asked to identify the contexts of the major themes covered in the lectures and discussion groups, and to discuss these with reference to significant names, dates and locations in these take-home exams. As with the Midterm, context and questions will be posted on D2L a week prior to the due date (i.e. Dec. 6, 2021).

The Final Exam papers are due in the D2L submission box at midnight on Monday Dec. 13, 2021 – please combine the two responses into a single Word or PDF document.

Final Mark:

☞ 2 map assignments (2x10%)	20 %
☞ Midterm	25 %
☞ Article Analyses (2x15%)	30 %
☞ Final exam	25 %

Due dates: Assignments must be submitted to the online submission box on D2L at the time and date listed below

Marks will be deducted at the rate of 5% per day for late assignments. If your assignment is late because of illness or a credible family emergency, please make sure to inform the instructor by e-mail as soon as possible – ideally before the deadline. The Midterm and Final Exam submission boxes on D2L will close at midnight on the due dates, so make sure to upload it before those times. No assignments will be accepted after the final exam date on Dec. 13, 2021 without prior permission from the instructor.

Note: If you find you are unable to complete an assignment, please e-mail me prior to the due dates, or as close to them as possible. It is the student's responsibility to inform me of any difficulties completing course components.

A Note on Plagiarism: Plagiarism will result in a failing grade on the assignment and may result in a failing grade for the course and/or further disciplinary action by the College. Please see the Student Conduct Policy.

What is plagiarism?

1. The use of another person's words (sentences/phrases/paragraphs) without including quotation marks and footnotes. This applies to any written work published in book, text, or magazine form, or anything located on the Internet. In other words, it is plagiarism if someone copies and pastes work from the Internet and presents that work as his/her own.
2. Paraphrasing any author's words or ideas without using a footnote to cite the source.
3. Copying another student's work, either on assignments or exams.

More information can be found in the Arts and Science Academic Honesty Guidelines, posted in the Course Overview on D2L.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.
