COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

Class Community This grade reflects that students are expected to keep up with the course work and participate in the discussion forums. When everyone does the readings, and quizzes, and watches the videos and takes some time to think about what we are studying, the quality of the discussion is elevated. Regard the discussions as professional work; this means no slang, no swearing, best efforts for correct grammar and spelling. I trust we will all aim to write as if we are speaking face to face, where dignity, courtesy and respect are constantly mandatory.

Weekly Homework Quizzes: There is a homework quiz set up on D2L for each chapter of the text. The weekly quiz always opens on a Wednesday at noon, and closes at noon the following Wednesday. Students may write the quiz at any time during the week; so extensions to complete these quizzes, unless they are made in advance, will not be granted.

The quizzes are set up to allow two attempts. After the first attempt, the D2L quiz tool will show which answers are incorrect. This gives students a chance to correct their mistakes. Only the higher of the two scores will count towards the homework grade. However, the quizzes also include the task of writing arguments. The great variety of possible correct answers makes it impossible for the computer to mark them automatically; so, the program will initially count these as incorrect. I have scheduled logic homework marking for Wednesday -Thursday afternoons. The grades will be sent out to students as the marking is completed.

The practice questions in the text, the quiz questions, and the questions that will appear tests are consistent in style and content. This way, to complete a quiz is to study for the test.

First Test, On Chapters 1, 2, 3, and 4

The test will open on D2L on Wednesday October 13th at 12 pm and close on Friday October 15th at 12:00 p.m. This is a one hour test that students may complete the test at anytime during this 48 hour window.

Second Test, On Chapters 5, 6, 7, and 8

The test will open on D2L on Wednesday November 10th at 12 pm and close on Saturday November 13th at 12:00 p.m. This is a one hour test that students may complete the test at anytime during this 72 hour window. (November 11th is a holiday; this schedule gives 48 non-holiday hours for the test.)

Final Test, On Chapters 9, 10, 11 and 12

The final test is scheduled during the first week of final exams. The test will open on D2L on Monday December 13th 12 pm and close on Wednesday Wednesday December 15^{th st} at 12 p.m. This is a one hour test that students may complete the test at anytime during this 48 hour window.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started: <http://camosun.ca/services/accessible-learning/>

Academic Integrity

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.13.pdf> for policy regarding academic expectations and details for addressing and resolving matters of academic misconduct.

Academic Progress

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.1.pdf> for further details on how Camosun College monitors students' academic progress and what steps can be taken if a student is at risk of not meeting the College's academic progress standards.

Mandatory Attendance for First Class Meeting of Each Course

Camosun College requires mandatory attendance for the first class meeting of each course. If you do not attend, and do not provide your instructor with a reasonable reason in advance, you will be removed from the course and the space offered to the next waitlisted student. For more information, please see the "Attendance" section under "Registration Policies and Procedures" (<http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/procedures.html>) and the Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.5.pdf>.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence.
