DESCRIPTION	WEIGHTING
Reading Quizzes (RQ): With each new chapter or reading students will be asked to take an online multiple-choice quiz in the course D2L website (in the Quiz section). The quizzes will cover the reading for that week (a chapter or a reading) and must be completed prior to the start of that week's class. Students have one attempt to successfully complete each RQ. The online submission window will close one hour prior to the start of that week's first class – at 5:00 PM on Mondays. The answers for each RQ are available once that RQ closes (5:00 PM on Mondays). There will be 10 reading quizzes throughout the semester; the lowest graded RQ will be dropped from each student's overall grade.	15%
Short Essays (SE): 15% per assignment Students will write three short essays (SE) of approximately 500 words each. A choice of questions will be posted at the beginning of each module. Students will answer one question from that module's selection. Short essays should be just as well-crafted as a standard essay. Late assignments will be penalized 10% per day. For more information, see the Short Essay section of the D2L content page.	45%
Group Discussion Reading Quiz (GDRQ): Online multiple-choice reading quizzes that cover readings for that week's group discussion. These quizzes are to be completed one hour prior to the start of Wednesday evening's online class. Students have one attempt to successfully complete the GDRQ. There will be 5 GDRQs; the lowest graded GDRQ will be dropped from each student's overall grade.	8%
Website Project (WP): 28% (15% Individual Short Essay, 5% Group Work Plan, 10% Website Showcase) The three-part project asks students to select a key idea from course (list provided) and as a group create a website that highlights key ideas from that theme. Individually students will respond with a short essay to a specific question that relates to their topic area. The short essay will run approximately 500 words. The WP Individual Short Essay is due November 13 at 11:59 PM. Groups will submit a work plan that explains how they will divide the project among their colleagues. The work plan will explain content and page layout. It will serve as a blue-print for the website. It is due November 23 at 11:59 PM. Along with two mandatory prep days, groups will showcase their completed websites on the last day of class December 4. For more details, see the Website Page Assignment section of the D2L content page.	30%
Engagement Self-Evaluation Quiz All students will be asked to make a meaningful contribution to class activities and demonstrate engagement with topic. There are numerous ways for students to express their engagement. See the D2L site for a full account of participation grading.	2%
TOTAL	100%

If you have a concern about a grade you have received for an evaluation, please come and see me as soon as possible. Refer to the Grade Review and Appeals policy for more information.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started: <http://camosun.ca/services/accessible-learning/>

Academic Integrity

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.13.pdf> for policy regarding academic expectations and details for addressing and resolving matters of academic misconduct.

Academic Progress

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.1.pdf> for further details on how Camosun College monitors students' academic progress and what steps can be taken if a student is at risk of not meeting the College's academic progress standards.

Mandatory Attendance for First Class Meeting of Each Course

Camosun College requires mandatory attendance for the first class meeting of each course. If you do not attend, and do not provide your instructor with a reasonable reason in advance, you will be removed from the course and the space offered to the next waitlisted student. For more information, please see the “Attendance” section under “Registration Policies and Procedures” (<http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/procedures.html>) and the Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.5.pdf>.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun’s Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student’s right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun’s Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence.
