a) CONTENT

Welcome to the fascinating world of Modern art history! This course explores Western art and architecture beginning c. 1750 and moving chronologically to art of the Post-modern era (c. 1960s and 70s).

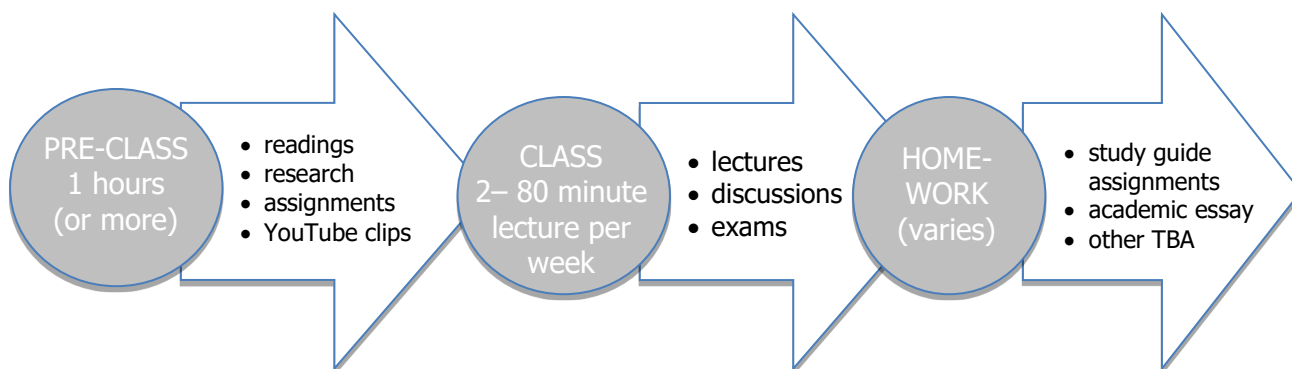

We begin by examining the artistic traditions inherited from the Renaissance in order to understand what Modern artists were rebelling against; next, we examine Modern art, and we conclude the semester by looking at the Postmodern era to see the shift in thinking and art making that ushered in a new era. Although this course has been articulated to focus on the West, there will be discussions that incorporate a more global and diverse approach.

As it is clearly impossible to cover all countries, art historical periods, artists, and artistic mediums, only a select few artists and ideas will be explored. The artistic legacies we do investigate will be considered and discussed according to their meaning(s) and function(s) in relation to the specific society and/or culture that produced the art.

b) FLIPPED CLASSROOM

This course uses a flipped class approach, that is, students encounter material before coming to class in the pre-class assignments.

- Expect pre-class work to be around 1 hour (or more) per lecture; it includes readings, research, short assignments, watching YouTube clips or videos I create. It is vital that all pre-class work is done before coming to class since this knowledge will be assumed.
- During lecture time, we build and elaborate upon that information.
- The material learned is put into practice as homework in study guide assignments. These assignments are not reviewed or graded by the instructor; rather, they are to assist students to synthesize information and prepare for the exam. You will be researching and writing the research essay outside of class time as well.

c) THINGS TO KNOW BEFORE STARTING THE COURSE

- ✓ There may be images, themes, terminology, and class discussions that some students may find uncomfortable, troubling, controversial, or is a trigger for you. If you feel this is going to adversely affect you and/or your ability to attend the lectures and/or complete assignments, please contact me as soon as possible so we can work together to navigate this early in the semester.
- ✓ this is a university-transfer course (UT class) and it is taught at this level; exams, assignments, and research papers are marked according to a 100 level UT.
- ✓ there are no additional exams or assignments or opportunities to increase your grade.
- ✓ I do not share my lecture notes with students so please don't ask.
- ✓ Unless you have permission, you may not record (audio and/or video) my lectures.
