COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course a student will be able to:

1. Examine core concepts and theory within the blended and diverging connections of film and video, both within a general historical context and as contemporary art form.
2. Explore and discuss moving images in relation to time, movement, capture systems and viewing methodologies, such as installation, theatre and the World Wide Web.
3. Examine and apply the basic technical skills required to operate digital cameras (SD, HD video cameras and DSLR's) and post-production programs (editing).
4. Demonstrate an understanding of the fundamental conceptual, formal and technical aspects of digital video art in the 21st century, through technical exercises and thematic projects.
5. Evaluate and generate constructive and interculturally aware critiques of one's own and others' projects.
6. Demonstrate thoughtfulness and confidence when consuming, creating and critiquing the work of others and their own.

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

Assignments will account for most of your course grade. Student course work will be assessed on each assignments ability to demonstrate; informed experimentation, process comprehension, and exploration of the concepts introduced within Film and Video Art. *Students should plan to meet with the instructor if there is any uncertainty or concern regarding assignment guidelines, results, or course standing.

This studio-based course requires students to work on aspects of their assignments in class to develop shared learning, creative community, and experimentation. Students are responsible for safe, respectful, and clean use of the studio, equipment, and materials. Work may only be stored in designated storage areas (or with special permission of instructor and instructional technician). Students are reminded that storage is limited in capacity and security. Late assignments will be penalized 2% per day to total of 5 days after which a zero will be given (weekends will be counted as one day).

Due to the nature of this course students are reminded of their responsibility to organize the booking, borrowing, and timely return of department equipment in accordance with the booking schedule. Failure to respect the equipment borrowing guidelines, and / or safe use of equipment, will result in having borrowing permissions within the department revoked.
