COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

- There are two lectures each week that everyone attends.
 - Lecture #1: Overview of the assigned chapter.
 - Lecture #2: Chapter details.
- Additionally, there is a one hour seminar each week. Half the class is registered for Seminar A, the hour after the first lecture each week; the other half of the class is registered for Seminar B, the hour after the second lecture each week. Please check your registration to find out which seminar is yours.

3. The work in the seminar includes short hand written assignments. Please bring paper and a pencil or pen (blue or black). These assignments will only be accepted in class; there are no make up seminar assignments. For full marks at least ten seminar assignments must be submitted and the assignments must show that the student has acquired the basic skills by the end of term.
4. If a student misses or knows they are going to miss the seminar they are registered in, they may attend the other seminar that week.
5. There are twelve homework quizzes set up on D2L, each corresponding to one chapter in the text. Each quiz is due by 10 a.m. on the day of Lecture #2. There is no time limit for completing a quiz, but 45 minutes is recommended. The quizzes are set up to show students the incorrect responses after their first attempt, and it allows a second attempt. Between the two attempts, the highest grade is the one that counts.
6. Each of the three tests is worth 25%. The first two tests will be written in class. The final test will be during the exam period, April 17-29. The date of the final exam will be posted by the College February 18th. If you miss a test or are going to miss a test, please contact me as soon as possible to arrange a date and time for a make-up test.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started: <http://camosun.ca/services/accessible-learning/>

Academic Integrity

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.13.pdf> for policy regarding academic expectations and details for addressing and resolving matters of academic misconduct.

Academic Progress

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.1.pdf> for further details on how Camosun College monitors students' academic progress and what steps can be taken if a student is at risk of not meeting the College's academic progress standards.

Mandatory Attendance for First Class Meeting of Each Course

Camosun College requires mandatory attendance for the first class meeting of each course. If you do not attend, and do not provide your instructor with a reasonable reason in advance, you will be removed from the course and the space offered to the next waitlisted student. For more information, please see the "Attendance" section under "Registration Policies and Procedures" (<http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/procedures.html>) and the Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.5.pdf>.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence.
