EVALUATION OF LEARNING

DESCRIPTION	WEIGHTING
(a) Research Paper Choose a work composed between (roughly) 1870 and 1970 that you consider to be of seminal importance to the development of music. Briefly discuss the work itself, its genesis, how it represents its composer, and its importance to the musical world of its time; your primary focus, however, should be the work's influence on subsequent generations of composers and musicians. You do NOT need to choose your topic from among the works studied in class, but you should discuss your ideas with me if you wish to go beyond that repertoire. Your paper should be approximately 5-7 typewritten pages, in a size 12 font and 1.5 spaced. Footnotes are required, and your bibliography must include no fewer than SIX entries, at least TWO of which should be from a periodical. The McPherson Library at UVic will be your main resource, Covid-19 protocols permitting, and as Camosun College students, you are entitled to use it. The VCM library is not equipped for research papers, and the Greater Victoria Public Library is limited. Be selective and discriminating when using Internet sources.	25%
(b) Quizzes (2): There will be TWO quizzes comprised of listening examples from music that has NOT been studied or listened to in class. The style, however, will be very similar. These quizzes are	10%

designed to help focus your listening in preparation for the mid-term and final exams.
c) Class Presentation: During the week of classes prior to the final review session and quiz, each class member will give a brief (online) presentation to the rest of the class about your chosen research paper topic.	10%
(d) Exams: Both mid-term and final exams will be made up of listening examples taken from the music studied in class. Questions pertaining to these selections will be asked. In addition, there will be a small number of questions with no listening component, such as brief definition questions, mix-and-match, etc. A take-home component will be assigned a week prior to the exam. Mid-term exam: in-class, 15%; take-home, 10% Final exam: in-class, 20%; take-home, 10%	Mid-Term: 15%/10% Final: 20%/10%
TOTAL	100%

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started:

<http://camosun.ca/services/accessible-learning/>

Academic Integrity

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.13.pdf> for policy regarding academic expectations and details for addressing and resolving matters of academic misconduct.

Academic Progress

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.1.pdf> for further details on how Camosun College monitors students' academic progress and what steps can be taken if a student is at risk of not meeting the College's academic progress standards.

Course Withdrawals Policy

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.2.pdf> for further details about course withdrawals. For deadline for fees, course drop dates, and tuition refund, please visit <http://camosun.ca/learn/fees/#deadlines>.

Mandatory Attendance for First Class Meeting of Each Course

Camosun College requires mandatory attendance for the first class meeting of each course. If you do not attend, and do not provide your instructor with a reasonable reason in advance, you will be removed from the course and the space offered to the next waitlisted student. For more information, please see the “Attendance” section under “Registration Policies and Procedures” (<http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/procedures.html>) and the Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.5.pdf>.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun’s Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student’s right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun’s Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence. Student Misconduct (Non-Academic)

Camosun College is committed to building the academic competency of all students, seeks to empower students to become agents of their own learning, and promotes academic belonging for everyone. Camosun also expects that all students to conduct themselves in a manner that contributes to a positive, supportive, and safe learning environment. Please review Camosun College’s Student Misconduct Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.5.pdf> to understand the College’s expectations of academic integrity and student behavioural conduct.

Changes to this syllabus: Every effort has been made to ensure that information in this syllabus is accurate at the time of publication. The College reserves the right to change courses if it becomes necessary so that course content remains relevant. In such cases, the instructor will give the students clear and timely notice of the changes.
