INSTRUCTOR DETAILS

NAME: Micaela Maftei

EMAIL: MafteiM@camosun.ca

OFFICE: Paul 327

HOURS: online Monday 2pm-3pm OR in person Tuesdays and Fridays from 1-2pm

As your course instructor, I endeavour to provide an inclusive learning environment. However, if you experience barriers to learning in this course, do not hesitate to discuss them with me. Camosun College is committed to identifying and removing institutional and social barriers that prevent access and impede success.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

In this course, students develop their skills in writing prose fiction, especially short stories. Students examine elements such as characterization, plot, dialogue, setting, point of view, openings and endings, and theme in the development of original stories. Students will prepare to share their work with an audience.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course students will be able to:

1. Write stories that are well-crafted.
2. Develop a writing process that involves generating, drafting, workshopping, revising and editing.
3. Create plots, settings, characters, and themes using appropriate points of view and nuanced language.
4. Compose a journal that informs the storyteller's process and finished work.
5. Read and analyze diverse published stories to identify crafting techniques.

6. Incorporate authentic detail to give fiction credibility.
7. Identify and use various resources (such as submission guidelines) available for writers in preparing work for publication.
8. Present their work in a professional manner.

EVALUATION OF LEARNING

DESCRIPTION	WEIGHTING
Stories (Due Oct 7, Nov 11, and Dec 8)	3 x 12% = 36%
Exercises (these happen in class on Sept 20, Oct 11, Nov 1, and Nov 22)	4 x 6% = 24%
Workshops (In class on Sept 23, Oct 21, Nov 8, and Dec 2) (half of the grades are for your own submission; half are for your reading, annotation and discussion of others' submissions)	4 x 10% = 40%
TOTAL	100%

If you have a concern about a grade you have received for an evaluation, please come and see me as soon as possible. Refer to the Grade Review and Appeals policy for more information.
<http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.14.pdf>

Late Policy: Late work will lose 10% on the first day, and 5% for each calendar day thereafter. Late papers will receive a grade but no written feedback. I will not accept work more than ten calendar days late. I use this policy in an effort to encourage people to stick to the deadlines, and to manage my own schedule and workload over a busy term. That said, I completely understand that life is often unpredictable and plans often go awry. If you think you will have trouble meeting a deadline, let me know as soon as possible. You are much likelier to get an extension if you're not asking me by email the evening before the due date.....

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

This course presupposes that you are interested in writing, that you are willing to put in time, voluntarily, to get better at writing, and that you believe in the idea that a writer gets better with practice, not by fulfilling the bare minimum of requirements. This course is built on the idea that we're all in this together, and that the best way to spend these 14 weeks is devoting time, effort and energy to becoming better writers, better readers, better critics and better sources of support for our peers. My suggestions to assist you to succeed are:

- Put in the time. No one can tell you how much time is needed. Put in as much as you can.
- Contact me with questions, concerns, comments, etc. I am a resource and will do my best to help! I'm also pretty good at suggesting other, better or more appropriate sources of support if I know of them.
- Be prepared for this course. That means, for workshop weeks, that you've read and annotated your peers' material, and are prepared to talk about them. For exercises, it means having a clear mind, material to write with, and mental energy for the task.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started:

<http://camosun.ca/services/accessible-learning/>

Academic Integrity

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.13.pdf> for policy regarding academic expectations and details for addressing and resolving matters of academic misconduct.

Academic Progress

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.1.pdf> for further details on how Camosun College monitors students' academic progress and what steps can be taken if a student is at risk of not meeting the College's academic progress standards.

Mandatory Attendance for First Class Meeting of Each Course

Camosun College requires mandatory attendance for the first class meeting of each course. If you do not attend, and do not provide your instructor with a reasonable reason in advance, you will be removed from the course and the space offered to the next waitlisted student. For more information, please see the "Attendance" section under "Registration Policies and Procedures" (<http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/procedures.html>) and the Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.5.pdf>.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence.
