COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

JAPN 200 is designed for students who have completed JAPN 100 and 101, or for those with an equivalent knowledge. This course will build on what the students have learned and further their skills in writing, reading, speaking and listening. The students are expected to start writing a longer passages to express their thoughts in Japanese. Grammar and vocabulary will be continuously introduced in the context of text dialogues. JAPN 200 will cover Genki I (Lesson 9 to 12).

Lecture Attendance

The students are expected to attend all classes and be on time. It is your responsibility to acquire all information given during a class missed, including notes, hand-outs, changed exam dates etc.

Due Dates and Late Assignments

It is expected that students will hand in assignments on time. The due dates are established in accordance with the course and term duration. The purpose of the due dates is to help both you and I to get the assignments done so that they can be assessed in a timely manner (unless you have an approved academic accommodation through CAL). Late assignments may be graded but marks equivalent to 10% of the total value of the assignment will be deducted for each day, inclusive of days on the weekend, past the deadline. If assignments have already been marked and returned, a late assignment will not be accepted. Assignments will not be accepted that are late more than three days, inclusive of days over the weekend. Please note: Assignments must be completed individually. The copied work, or done by on-line translation program, etc., will receive 0%.

Review sheets submission

Throughout the course, you are required to view PPT grammar videos to study each concept. After you view the PPTs, complete the PDF review sheets and upload them on D2L before the class starts to receive any marks. Your work will be evaluated for completeness, carefulness, and whether or not you submitted the work on time.

Exam Procedures

All exams must be written at the scheduled times and place with the exception of students requiring an accommodation by CAL. It is understood that emergency circumstances do occur (e.g. severe illness or family emergency); for such circumstances accommodation may be offered at the discretion of the instructor, provided the student notifies the instructor in advance of the exam (not after) unless the student is unable (e.g. unconscious in a hospital. Hope this will never happen to you.)

If an exam is missed with an excused absence, it is up to the instructor's discretion as to how the mark will be made. Be sure not to make travel plans to go away during the semester and for the end of semester. note: the use of cell phones during a test or quiz is not allowed and may result in a zero for that assessment.

Study Habits

Consistent study habits are essential to do well in this course. You should plan on a weekly minimum of 6 hours outside of scheduled class time for the completion of readings, assignments and for general studying. Please note that the explanations and exercises given during the class should not be your sole source of information and practice. You will need to read text explanation, study vocabulary, and review what you have learned in each class to support your understanding. Forming a study group to support one another is helpful.

It is also recommended to make your own notes on grammar explanations, incorporating additional information from your textbook. Study these notes before the next class to prepare yourself for new material, which will often build on previously covered material. Please take advantage of office hours if you need extra clarification and help.

Online translators: DO NOT USE IT, PLASE.

I will know right away if you do. These online translators will produce sentences that are almost always "off" or "unnatural", and it will use vocabs, Kanji (Chinese characters), sentence structures that you haven't even learned in the course. If I detect the use of such device in any of your work, you will receive zero. The same consequence will follow for copied work and/or getting help from others (e.g. Japanese language speakers) to complete your work. This is your course for YOU to get better at Japanese.
