MLA style sheet is a good formatting guide.

I am available to meet with you at your request.

Attendance is important! Please bring your curiosity and insight with you to class.

I look forward to working with you.

The following schedule and course components are subject to change with reasonable advance notice, as deemed appropriate by the instructor.

Course Content and Schedule

(This section can include: class hours, lab hours, out of class requirements and/or dates for quizzes, exams, lectures, labs, seminars, practicums, etc.)

Class times: 8:30 – 10:00 am, via zoom, Wednesday and Thursday mornings

A) These are known as the ‘minis’

-Students will research innovators in blues and rock, dates TBA.

You will be assigned partners for this term’s presentations.

You will look into their life histories and examine in detail the innovation they bring to their genre including singing style, song structure and lyrical innovation. These will be assigned randomly. Each group will then present their findings and play examples for the class. There will be three of these presentations 15-20 minutes long worth 10 marks each for a total of 30 marks for the term. Please submit your presentation and bibliography on the day of your presentation to D2L.

B)- Students will be required to read a biography of an artist of your own choice, in the rock or blues genre and write a book report, due on July 12th. 1000 words.

This will be worth 20 marks.

C)- Research Assignment worth 20 marks - due July 27th

-please notice the absence of Spotify for this assignment

- This requires listening to and comparing four artists of your choice that you are not familiar with.
- One artist or band that catches your ear on the radio
- One artist or band that you find through a video on television.
- One artist or band that you find randomly on the internet
(Important: not to be recommended by anyone)
- One artist or band that you see live or live streaming, from seeing their name (not word of mouth or your friend’s choice.) Note DJs are not musicians in the same ‘people playing their music live, sense!’

Please apply the following criteria.

Answer the following:

1. What industry affiliation does each group or artist have?
Indie or Major?
 2. Production style? Did they use an established producer or are they self-produced? How does that effect your like or dislike of them?
 3. How does the media perceive them? What is their story?
 4. Marketing strategy? Web sites? Friends? Can you download their music?
 5. How important is image? What demographic are they targeting? Video? Bio?
 6. Influences? Look at one song from each artist or band. Look at lyrics and at who the writer/composer is. (please include)
Are they musically or lyrically innovative? Describe their genre. What makes them appealing?
 7. Profile. Is this artist or band international? Domestic? Who manages them and who distributes their product? How many recordings do they have?
 8. Overall Summary. What comparisons can you draw between your examples? Do you see a trend forming? What differences have you discovered? What attracted you to these artists? Would you buy their recording or go and see them live?
 9. Comments. What are your observations of the music industry?
10. Bibliography. MLA style sheet is a good reference.
The presentation style of this assignment is up to you and will depend on the materials gathered.
Each point must be considered.

D) - The final listening exam TBA and will be worth 20 marks.

I will post a listening list on D2I. You will be asked for the artist and the genre.

- 10 marks are reserved for attendance and contribution to the class.

I expect regular attendance and communication. Cameras on. Bring your energy to class.

Please note: Assignments not submitted by due date will receive a zero unless other arrangements have been made. Please communicate!

Minis must be presented on the due date.
