2. Course Description & Intended Learning Outcomes

In this course, students will begin to develop a framework for understanding and working with families. Students will examine the diverse nature of family structures, relationships, and dynamics. Historical, economic and social factors that shape family life and the challenges that face today's families are explored.

Upon successful completion of the course students will be able to:

- a) demonstrate an understanding of the effect of family experiences on the lives of children, youth and adults.
- b) demonstrate knowledge of family structures and dynamics.
- c) demonstrate an understanding of challenges and issues facing today's families.

3. Required Materials

To pass this course, students must satisfactorily complete all assignments and learning activities with a minimum grade of C for each assignment.

Assignment Submission

Written assignments must be submitted via D2L. File names should include your name for easy reference. Written assignments must be typed and double spaced and follow APA guidelines. Pay particular attention to page numbering and headers, line spacing, font and font size, the citation of source material, and cover-page format. Spelling, grammar, and presentation of the material will be taken into consideration when assignments are graded.

All assignments are to be submitted on designated due dates. In some circumstances, students may arrange with the instructor for an extension of an assignment before the due date. Marks will be deducted (5% per day) of assignments if prior arrangements have not been made with the instructor.

Evaluation of participation includes:

- Active and respectful participation in classes
- Regular attendance
- Adequate preparation for classes
- Contributions to small group and large group discussions
- Respectful behaviour towards classmates and instructor (Including having mobile phones muted during classes)
- Awareness of own behaviour and its effect on others

60-64	C		2
50-59	D		1
0-49	F	Minimum level has not been achieved.	0

2. Competency Based Grading System (Non GPA)

This grading system is based on satisfactory acquisition of defined skills or successful completion of the course learning outcomes.

Grade	Description
COM	The student has met the goals, criteria, or competencies established for this course practicum or field placement.
DST	The student has met and exceeded, above and beyond expectation, the goals, criteria, or competencies established for this course, practicum or field placement.
NC	The student has not met the goals, criteria or competencies established for this course, practicum or field placement.

B. Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy at <http://www.camosun.bc.ca/policies/E-1.5.pdf#page=4> for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete: A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that are designed to have an anticipated enrollment that extends beyond one term. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course.
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.
