INSTRUCTOR DETAILS

NAME: Ildiko Danis
EMAIL: Danisi@camosun.bc.ca
OFFICE: CHW 312
HOURS: By appointment

As your course instructor, I endeavour to provide an inclusive learning environment. However, if you experience barriers to learning in this course, do not hesitate to discuss them with me. Camosun College is committed to identifying and removing institutional and social barriers that prevent access and impede success.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

Students will examine theories and perspectives that explain human growth and development from early childhood to adolescence. Emphasis is placed on using critical thinking skills in examining the different approaches to understanding children's behavior, thinking and growth. Students will continue to explore Indigenous knowledge, including the impact of residential schools and on-going colonization to expand their understanding of differing approaches and understanding of growth and development. Socio-cultural theories are looked at to understand the influences of family and community.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of this course a student will be able to:

- describe some of the theories and perspectives that explain children's growth from early childhood to adolescence from a critical perspective.
- critically reflect on current and emerging theories and perspectives of children's growth and development in order to effectively plan for children and families.
- continue to build a theoretical foundation that includes multiple narratives of children's development.
- have an awareness of how theoretical perspectives and personal beliefs can influence practice.
- use pedagogical narrations to research children's growth in abilities and skills.
- deepen awareness of indigenous perspectives, the impact of residential schools and on-going colonization on children's holistic development.

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

You are expected to come to class each day having prepared by reading all of the required materials. Spend time with these materials, think about them, what do you think? It is important that you develop your own opinion, or bring questions, or perhaps an alternate viewpoint, so that we can collectively deepen our understanding of what these materials mean to our community.

For group assignments, you are to be accountable, to demonstrate professionalism, and to connect with me if I can support you through interpersonal communication.

All assignments are due at the beginning of class on the due date. If you want to request an extension, you need to contact me in 48 hours advance of the due date. Late assignments will be deducted 5% per day.

All assignments must be submitted to pass the course.

I am a resource. Please contact me. I can support you to access services at the college to support you as a learner.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started:

<http://camosun.ca/services/accessible-learning/>

Academic Integrity

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.13.pdf> for policy regarding academic expectations and details for addressing and resolving matters of academic misconduct.

Academic Progress

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.1.pdf> for further details on how Camosun College monitors students' academic progress and what steps can be taken if a student is at risk of not meeting the College's academic progress standards.

Mandatory Attendance for First Class Meeting of Each Course

Camosun College requires mandatory attendance for the first class meeting of each course. If you do not attend, and do not provide your instructor with a reasonable reason in advance, you will be removed from the course and the space offered to the next waitlisted student. For more information, please see the "Attendance" section under "Registration Policies and Procedures"

(<http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/procedures.html>) and the Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.5.pdf>.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence.
