2. Course Description & Intended Learning Outcomes

Students will explore indigenous peoples' health experiences: past, present, and future. Using a strength-based and holistic perspective, students will learn about the current realities of Indigenous peoples' health experiences, and will be introduced to traditional healing practices. Students will be able to use this knowledge to further their own understanding of Indigenous peoples' health, and can apply this experience to work with children, families and in community.

Upon successful completion of this course a student will be able to:

- describe and discuss the impact of colonization on Indigenous peoples' health in Canada.
- describe the dimensions of health with consideration to their application to indigenous peoples.
- explain the relationship between people, land and health and the ways in which this may be experienced by indigenous peoples and community.
- discuss select holistic health approaches and cultural practices and the ways in which these enhance the health of Indigenous peoples and community.
- describe future possibilities for indigenous health that encompass a strength-based holistic perspective on health.

3. Required Materials

(a) Texts

Greenwood, M., de Leeuw, S., & Lindsay, N. M. (Eds.). (2018). Determinants of Indigenous Peoples' Health in Canada: Beyond the Social (2nd ed.). Vancouver: Canadian Scholars' Press.

Assignment Due:

Learning Journal 2

5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

Assignments

(a) Participation		20%
(b) Reading Reflection	(Due Weekly)	20%
(c) Learning Journal 1	(Due Feb. 29)	30%
(d) Learning Journal 2	(Due Apr. 8)	30%

Breakdown:

(a) Participation 20%

- Attendance is a critical part of learning and a very important part of this class.
- Being Prepared for Class includes making sure you have your readings done and are ready to talk about and respond them, and the class lectures.
- Active Listening is a vital aspect of being in a respectful dialogue with others. You must be able to hear what other people are saying so that you can respond to them in a respectful, and appropriate manner.
- Professionalism includes being on time for class; letting me know when you are unable to attend class; making arrangements with me for extensions on assignments; and, looking for clarification when you are not understanding something.
- You cannot miss more than two classes without a valid excuse. Missing more than two classes will mean you cannot pass this class.

(b) Reading Reflection: (Due Weekly) 20%

- Every week, students are expected to submit a maximum one (1) page reflection on the readings of the week. This reflection should include:
 - a summary of the authors thesis (one paragraph),
 - your interpretation of the reading (one paragraph),

- and one question for class discussion (this can be on something you did not understand, want more clarification on, highlights something that was missing in the reading, etc...)
- Only accepted at the beginning of each class.

(c) Learning Journal 1

30%

- You will provide a critical response to the first sections of the course (Colonialism).
- Within this assignment you will: provide:
 - a brief summary of the section;
 - outline points of agreement;
 - discuss new learning you have acquired;
 - and finally, “so what?”
- The “so what” piece is about understanding and demonstrating the practical application of the knowledge you have recently acquired. Or, how will this new knowledge enable you to make a better future.
- This assignment is 3-4 double spaced pages, Times New Roman 12-point font, and must include a title page, body, and references (APA Style) page for anything that is from a source that is not your own thoughts.

(d) Learning Journal 2

30%

- You will provide a critical response to the second sections of the course (Cultural Revitalization).
- Within this assignment you will: provide:
 - a brief summary of the section;
 - outline points of agreement;
 - discuss new learning you have acquired;
 - and finally, “so what?”
- The “so what” piece is about understanding and demonstrating the practical application of the knowledge you have recently acquired. Or, how will this new knowledge enable you to make a better future.
- This assignment is 3-4 double spaced pages, Times New Roman 12-point font, and must include a title page, body, and references (APA Style) page for anything that is from a source that is not your own thoughts.

60-64	C		2
50-59	D		1
0-49	F	Minimum level has not been achieved.	0

2. Competency Based Grading System (Non GPA)

This grading system is based on satisfactory acquisition of defined skills or successful completion of the course learning outcomes.

Grade	Description
COM	The student has met the goals, criteria, or competencies established for this course practicum or field placement.
DST	The student has met and exceeded, above and beyond expectation, the goals, criteria, or competencies established for this course, practicum or field placement.
NC	The student has not met the goals, criteria or competencies established for this course, practicum or field placement.

• Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy at <http://www.camosun.bc.ca/policies/E-1.5.pdf#page=4> for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete: A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that are designed to have an anticipated enrollment that extends beyond one term. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course.
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.
