MRAD 264
Interprofessional Practices for Technologists
Winter 2017

COURSE OUTLINE

The calendar description is available on the web @ <http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/web/mrad.html#MRAD264>

In this advanced-beginner seminar course, students design their own learning experiences to develop interprofessional practice behaviours. Students also participate in interdisciplinary learning and teaching events hosted by the school. Focus is on students creating interprofessional opportunities for themselves and others with instructor facilitation and guidance.

Ω Please note: This outline will not be kept indefinitely. It is recommended students keep this outline for their records, especially to assist in transfer credit to post-secondary institutions.

1. Instructor Information

(a)	Instructor:	Aref Aalam
(b)	Office Hours:	W & F 13:30 to 14:30
(c)	Location:	WT 212D
(d)	Phone:	(250) 370 3182

2. Intended Learning Outcomes

(If any changes are made to this part, then the Approved Course Description must also be changed and sent through the approval process.)

- a) engage in interdisciplinary learning and teaching to promote optimal patient outcomes.
- b) plan and develop activities that promote interprofessional collaboration.
- c) promote interprofessional collaboration for technologists.

3. Required Materials

Desire-to-Learn (D2L):

D2L – the Camosun College online learning portal contains the remainder of the learning materials for this course. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with the online learning environment and all the features it has to make this course experience enriching. Log on at <https://online.camosun.ca/> to access these materials.

Additional resources may include, but are not limited to: lecture notes, PowerPoint slides, Student Handbooks, Laboratory Manuals, and hyperlinks. You may prefer to download lectures notes ahead of time (when available) and then write your notes directly onto copies of the slides.

D2L materials must not be considered your sole source of information! They merely summarize the main points and provide direction for your learning experiences. You may need to write down additional information in each lecture. Additionally, not all details can be covered in a lecture, and you will be required to refer to material that is not discussed specifically in class.

MRAD 264 is an interactive seminar course that uses a variety of teaching and learning modes: facilitation by instructor, collaborative discussions, group-developed processes, self-reflective learning, self-directed study, and audio-visual experiences in small and large venues.

4. Course Content and Schedule

Major Project, NURS2 & MRAD Simulation	40 %
Weekly Discussion/Check-In/Participation	10 %
TOTAL	100 %

Students

must achieve

a minimum of 65% and complete all assignments in order to use this course as a prerequisite.

- Detailed information regarding assignments will be available on D2L.
- Complete all assignments on time and submit on the designated due dates. In exceptional circumstances, students may request an extension; however that extension must be arranged with the instructor before the due date. Students who have not pre-arranged an extension will have 10% of the total possible mark deducted per day from late assignments.
- Incomplete assignments will not be accepted.
- Unless otherwise stated, all assignments will be submitted via D2L
- In emergency circumstances, a student may arrange to take an assessment before or after the scheduled time if the student would otherwise be unable to complete the program or course. Exceptions due to emergency circumstances, such as unavoidable employment commitments, health problems, or unavoidable family crises, require the approval of the instructor. Holidays or scheduled flights are not considered to be emergencies. The student may be required to provide verification of the emergency circumstance. (Camosun Academic Policy) <http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/pdf/academic-policies.pdf>

Attendance

- Students are expected to be on time; tardiness disrupts the class. When students are more than 5 minutes late (and/or the classroom door is shut), they cannot enter the classroom until the class break period.

- If you choose not to or are unable to attend lecture it is your responsibility to acquire all information given during a class missed, incl. notes, hand-outs, assignments, changed exam dates etc. Email the instructor as a courtesy.
- Communication regarding attendance and late assignments is marked as part of assignments (late penalties) and under participation as professionalism and attendance.
- The mark for Weekly Discussion/Check In/Participation may be used in lieu of meeting during the class' officially scheduled time.

6. Grading System

(If any changes are made to this part, then the Approved Course description must also be changed and sent through the approval process.)

(Mark with "X" in box below to show appropriate approved grading system – see last page of this template.)

Standard Grading System (GPA)

Competency Based Grading System

A. GRADING SYSTEMS <http://www.camosun.bc.ca/policies/policies.php>

B. Temporary Grades

Temporary grades are assigned for specific circumstances and will convert to a final grade according to the grading scheme being used in the course. See Grading Policy at <http://www.camosun.bc.ca/policies/E-1.5.pdf> for information on conversion to final grades, and for additional information on student record and transcript notations.

Temporary Grade	Description
I	Incomplete: A temporary grade assigned when the requirements of a course have not yet been completed due to hardship or extenuating circumstances, such as illness or death in the family.
IP	In progress: A temporary grade assigned for courses that are designed to have an anticipated enrollment that extends beyond one term. No more than two IP grades will be assigned for the same course.
CW	Compulsory Withdrawal: A temporary grade assigned by a Dean when an instructor, after documenting the prescriptive strategies applied and consulting with peers, deems that a student is unsafe to self or others and must be removed from the lab, practicum, worksite, or field placement.

7. Recommended Materials or Services to Assist Students to Succeed Throughout the Course

LEARNING SUPPORT AND SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

There are a variety of services available for students to assist them throughout their learning. This information is available in the College Calendar, Student Services or the College web site at: <http://www.camosun.bc.ca>

MRT PROFESSIONAL CODE OF ETHICS

Camosun College Medical Radiography students are expected to abide by the Canadian Association of Medical Radiation Technologists' (CAMRT) Code of Ethics inasmuch as it applies to them in the learning and clinical environments. This information is available on the CAMRT website at:
CAMRT Code of Ethics

STUDENT CONDUCT POLICY

There is a Student Conduct Policy. It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with the content of this policy. The policy is available in each School Administration Office, Registration, and on the College web site in the Policy Section: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/>
