As your course instructor, I endeavour to provide an inclusive learning environment. However, if you experience barriers to learning in this course, do not hesitate to discuss them with me. Camosun College is committed to identifying and removing institutional and social barriers that prevent access and impede success.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

In this advanced-beginner course, students build on their knowledge of how to operate radiographic and accessory imaging equipment. Students explore fluoroscopy, mammography, mobile radiography, as well as intra-operative equipment. Students focus on the digital imaging process and digital archiving principles as they apply to a variety of radiographic imaging modalities. In the lab component of this course, students execute quality control tests and apply tolerance standards as outlined in federal safety codes to assess equipment performance.

Note: Only open to students in the Medical Radiography program.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of this course a student will be able to:

- a) describe the evolution, function, and importance of x-ray tubes used in a variety of medical imaging procedures.
- b) explain how diagnostic images are produced by describing the components and function of computed radiography, digital radiography, fluoroscopy, mobile radiography, mammography, and C-arms.
- c) describe how digital imaging principles and techniques are used in the performance of medical radiography.
- d) describe the use of digital archiving principles in the management of imaging data within a variety of workplace settings.
- e) apply the principles of quality control and quality assurance to review and analyze radiographic images for accuracy and quality.

COURSE OBJECTIVES AND MAPPED PROFESSIONAL COMPETENCIES

(also known as “sub-outcomes” or “learning objectives”)

Canadian Association of Medical Radiation Technologists Competency Profile, Radiological Technology (2014)

- A.1.2 Comply with federal and provincial legislation and regulations affecting the practice of medical radiation technology. R
- A.2.16 Demonstrate basic knowledge of current and emerging practices and technological developments in the field of medical radiation technology. R
- A.7.2 Participate in activities that support a quality assurance program. R
- C.3.1 Apply ALARA principle. R
- C.3.2 Apply knowledge of radiation effects and risks. R
- C.3.3 Use protective devices and apparel for personnel. I
- C.3.4 Implement safe practices to minimize radiation dose to personnel and support persons. I
- C.3.5 Implement safe practices to minimize radiation dose to patients. I
- C.3.6 Monitor personal radiation exposure, and respond. I
- C.5.1 Recognize emergency situations involving equipment listed in Appendices 2 & 5, and respond. I
- D.1.2 Apply knowledge of operational components of imaging systems listed in Appendix 2. I
- D.1.3 Apply knowledge of radiation interactions. R
- D.2.1 Operate imaging systems listed in Appendix 2. I
- D.2.2 Select and optimize parameters for performing a procedure. R
- D.2.5 Perform post-processing on acquired image data. I
- D.2.6 Utilize digital networking and archiving system. R
- D.2.7 Evaluate images for the purpose of reject analysis. R

- D.3.1 Assess performance of imaging equipment as listed in Appendix 2, and respond. I
- D.4.1 Apply knowledge of principles affecting image quality. R

Students enrolled in Allied Health & Technologies Programs must achieve a minimum of 65% or a "COM" in each of their courses in order to use their course as a pre-requisite and progress in their program.

Students enrolled in Allied Health & Technologies Programs must participate in learning activities that include intimate and direct personal contact with their classmates during supervised practice. Students are training to perform the duties of a healthcare professional. These duties usually require constant, close physical contact with patients and clients. Students may be required to simulate and perform these activities on one another during this course. Students may also be required to use special hygiene practices and protective gear to protect themselves from the transmission of communicable diseases (like COVID-19). Risks associated with learning and performing the physical duties of a healthcare profession cannot be entirely eliminated by any amount of caution or protection. Students who refuse, or are incapable of participating and performing these activities due to personal or medical limitations, may only continue to participate in their course work when supported by officially registered accommodations or temporary medical advisory.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started:

Mandatory Attendance for First Class Meeting of Each Course

Camosun College requires mandatory attendance for the first class meeting of each course. If you do not attend, and do not provide your instructor with a reasonable reason in advance, you will be removed from the course and the space offered to the next waitlisted student. For more information, please see the "Attendance" section under "Registration Policies and Procedures"

(<http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/procedures.html>) and the Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.5.pdf>.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence. To contact the Office of Student Support: oss@camosun.ca or by phone: 250-370-3046 or 250-370-3841

Student Misconduct (Non-Academic)

Camosun College is committed to building the academic competency of all students, seeks to empower students to become agents of their own learning, and promotes academic belonging for everyone. Camosun also expects that all students to conduct themselves in a manner that contributes to a positive, supportive, and safe learning environment. Please review Camosun College's Student Misconduct Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.5.pdf> to understand the College's expectations of academic integrity and student behavioural conduct.
