CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

Learners explore foundational concepts informing nursing practice to provide safe, competent, culturally appropriate care in the context of acute and chronic illness across the lifespan. Learners integrate nursing theory related to acute and chronic illness, skills in critical thinking, nursing decision making models, and learning theory. Learners develop expertise in patient-centred care plans for patients and families experiencing health challenges. Learners will integrate knowledge from pathophysiology, pharmacology, and nursing to assess, diagnose, intervene, and evaluate patients across the lifespan. Learners will develop competency caring for patients across the continuum of health, including health promotion, acute and chronic illness management, rehabilitation, and supportive care.

PREREQUISITE(S): none
PRE/CO-REQUISITE(S): C in BIOL 152

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

Weekly Preparation

You are provided with a required reading list for each module and concept. Please refer to this information to prepare for each class. Your readings are from your textbooks, listed above, with some additional articles and websites. Other materials will be posted to D2L. Content from all these sources is examinable, as is relevant foundational material from courses which are prerequisite or corequisite to this course. For example, a case study question regarding a cerebrovascular accident (stroke) may require you to demonstrate knowledge of the cerebral vasculature, thus, drawing on previous coursework.

Your readings may have some overlap with other courses. You may use these readings as additional resources or choose to skip them. If there are conflicts in information, the readings assigned for this course will be considered definitive for evaluation within Nursing 232. Variances in practice, other courses, or resources may be discussed during class. If you notice a variance not discussed, you can email your educator or discuss this during class time.

SCHOOL OR DEPARTMENTAL INFORMATION

Students are required to read and are accountable for following College policies and practicum guidelines as described in the BSN and HHS Student Handbooks.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started:

<http://camosun.ca/services/accessible-learning/>

Academic Integrity

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.13.pdf> for policy regarding academic expectations and details for addressing and resolving matters of academic misconduct.

Academic Progress

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.1.pdf> for further details on how Camosun College monitors students' academic progress and what steps can be taken if a student is at risk of not meeting the College's academic progress standards.

Course Withdrawals Policy

Mandatory Attendance for First Class Meeting of Each Course

Camosun College requires mandatory attendance for the first class meeting of each course. If you do not attend, and do not provide your instructor with a reasonable reason in advance, you will be removed from the course and the space offered to the next waitlisted student. For more information, please see the "Attendance" section under "Registration Policies and Procedures" (<http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/procedures.html>) and the Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.5.pdf>.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized

Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence. To contact the Office of Student Support: oss@camosun.ca or by phone: 250-370-3046 or 250-370-3841

Student Misconduct (Non-Academic)

Camosun College is committed to building the academic competency of all students, seeks to empower students to become agents of their own learning, and promotes academic belonging for everyone. Camosun also expects that all students to conduct themselves in a manner that contributes to a positive, supportive, and safe learning environment. Please review Camosun College's Student Misconduct Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.5.pdf> to understand the College's expectations of academic integrity and student behavioural conduct.
