5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

Note about grading: The assignment descriptions listed below outline the basic criteria by which you will be assessed. In order to receive top marks for your assignments you will need to go above and beyond the expectations described below. You can do this by showing a depth of engagement with the topic that you are writing about.

(a) Attendance (20%)

Attendance is a very important part of this class. You must be in class to hear what people are saying so that you can benefit from all the knowledge that is shared in this course.

(b) Self-location assignment (20%) – Due by lecture 6

A fundamental principle of Indigenous ways of knowing is the importance of self-location within your work/research/studies. For this assignment consider your own histories and relationships (identity, worldview, culture, ancestry) and write a self-location paper. Your paper should focus on who you are (identity/culturally), where you come from (ancestral origins) and how you have come to be in L'kwungen and WSÁNEĆ territory.

This assignment should be 2 full typed pages, double spaced, 12 pt. font. You do not need to provide a title page but ensure that your name and the course is listed on the paper.

(c) Critical Reflections (20%) – Due by lecture 11

Each student must write a critical reflection for this course. The critical reflection should draw on the course discussions, films, guests, and/or readings. Each critical reflection can have a short introduction that summarizes what you will be writing about. BUT remember that you are critically reflecting and NOT summarizing. Use this opportunity to critically reflect on a topic(s) and show the instructor that you have an understanding or personal experience that goes beyond readings, films, guests, and/or discussions.

Critical reflections must be 2 full typed pages, double spaced, 12 pt. font. You may use any citation style as long as you are consistent throughout the paper. You do not need to provide a title page but ensure that your name and the course title/section is listed on the paper.

(d) Presentation (40%)

Each student must complete a presentation that demonstrates an understanding of the exploration of their indigeneity, tell your story. Please refer to the course schedule for the date of presentations.

The presentation must be 10-15 minutes; any references (print materials, pictures, film, media, etc.) must be cited correctly. Students can choose to deliver the presentation using any form of creative expression including, but not limited to, carving, dance, drawing, film, oration, painting, poetry, and story. Or students can choose to deliver a more traditional academic presentation.

Use the following guidelines to help you with your presentation: Introduction of topic and self; a brief overview of how colonization has impacted you; share the exploration of your Indigeneity, tell us your story; how has this project impacted you?
