CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

PREREQUISITE(S): One of:

- C+ in English 12
- C in Camosun Alternative

CO-REQUISITE(S): None

EQUIVALENCIES: None

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

Students will examine Indigenous legal traditions, forms of justice, and engage in discourse regarding Indigenous peoples' experiences in the Canadian legal system with a focus on the criminal law including: interactions with police, courts, corrections and colonial law. Using both experiential and theoretical learning processes, students will consider and assess opportunities for emerging approaches and initiatives to achieve reconciliation in relation to justice with Indigenous peoples.

The following are a list of intended learning outcomes for this course. By the end of the semester, students should be able to:

1. Identify and describe who are Indigenous peoples in Canada and British Columbia;
2. Identify and describe Indigenous approaches to justice within Indigenous traditions;
3. Describe the intersection of economic, structured, political, racial and social factors that impact indigenous people's involvement in the Canadian justice system;
4. Describe and compare the roles and practices of various Indigenous programs and multiple Canadian social control agencies in the treatment of Indigenous offenders; and
5. Describe emerging models of justice and practice that address the needs of Indigenous peoples and communities and explore pathways towards reconciliation.

REQUIRED MATERIALS & RECOMMENDED PREPARATION / INFORMATION

Learning Materials

In an attempt to respect orality and different forms of teaching Indigenous peoples, the learning materials will include sound recordings, audio-visual documents, websites and texts.

You will be expected to access the following materials:

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to comply with all College policy regarding academic integrity; which is about honest and ethical behaviour in your education journey. The following guide is designed to help you understand your responsibilities: <https://camosun.libguides.com/academicintegrity/welcome>
Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.13.pdf> for Camosun's Academic Integrity policy and details for addressing and resolving matters of academic misconduct.

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc.). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started: <http://camosun.ca/services/accessible-learning/>

Academic Progress

Please visit https://www.camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2021-05/e-1.1_0.pdf for further details on how Camosun College monitors students' academic progress and what steps can be taken if a student is at risk of not meeting the College's academic progress standards.
