COURSE OUTLINE

Description:

This course is an overview of major themes and theories of development from conception through middle childhood. Using a life course perspective, students will examine how relationships, common life transitions and cultural-historical factors influence the evolution of individual lives. Students will explore variations within multiple domains of development as a foundation for practice when supporting children and families.

✦ Please note: This outline will not be kept indefinitely. It is recommended students keep this outline for their records, especially to assist in transfer credit to post-secondary institutions.

Assignment Details

(A more detailed explanation of assignments will be discussed in class)

NOTE: All assignments will be marked by the following criteria:

1. Writing skills (APA style, clear language, proper grammar, flow, formatting)
2. Thorough coverage (all questions answered, proper length, appropriate referencing)
3. Insight (depth of understanding, reflection of meaning, importance)

LATE POLICY

All assignments are to be submitted by midnight on designated due dates. In exceptional circumstances, students may arrange with the instructor for an extension of an assignment BEFORE the due date. Marks will be deducted for late assignments if prior arrangements have not been made with the instructor.

MANDATORY ASSIGNMENTS

ALL assignments must be submitted in order to complete this course.

EVALUATION OF PARTICIPATION INCLUDES:

- Pre-class preparation, including reading assignment materials
- Arriving at class on time, and consistent attendance
- Constructive and appropriate comments in class

- Participation in in-class assignments and exercises
- Active and appropriate participation in class discussions and group work
- Active and respectful listening
- Respectful and considerate behavior toward others

Makeup Assignment for any missed class:

Due: by midnight the day before the following class after the absence; please submit electronically.

You can choose to do this assignment if you want to avoid missing class participation marks. You need to have a minimum five minute discussion (in person or on the phone) with at least two students in your class to learn their perspective of the important aspects of the session missed. Ensure you identify which students you have spoken to by using their name in your write up. Complete and submit a 500 word write up which talks about the key elements that were missed in the class, along with your own reflections on the subject.

Reading logs:

Value: 30% (10 reading logs x 3% each = 30%)

Length: Two pages (approximately 500 words)

Due: The night prior to class by midnight. Please submit your reading logs using D2L. The reading logs will be marked 1, 2 or 3 for a possible total out of 3. Logs are to be based on the reading for that week and should be submitted to the D2L drop box. NOTE: Reading logs must be in APA formatting which includes a cover page, in-text citation for the text book and a reference page. The purpose of a reading log is to demonstrate that you have read the text and have a grasp of the key concepts. Your reading log should be about half a brief summary about key points from the text, and about half your own thoughts on what you have read.

1. You will need to state in your own words: the main points from the chapter (what stood out as most significant or meaningful for you). Please try to avoid using quotes. Because there is a lot of material in each chapter, you will need to choose a few most significant points, not try to cover it all.
2. Then, consider your own thoughts on what you have read. This could include: what you question and why, what are you curious to know more about and why, how this information may be useful for you in your future work, compare and contrast to how what you have read relates to your own experience. This demonstrates that you are able to integrate what you have read.

Research Article Analysis Assignment

Value: 15%

Length: 750 to 1000 words plus cover page and reference page, APA formatted

Due: Oct 22 by midnight (NOTE: Attach a copy of the article you read)

The purpose of this assignment is for students to understand how to read research reports on child development. Choose a research article on a topic you are interested in from an academic journal on child development, available through the library. It is recommended that the article you choose is no more than 10 pages in length and written within the past 10 years. Read the study and answer the following questions:

1. Introductory paragraph: What made you choose this article? Who were the investigators and what was the aim or reason for the study?
2. Main body of paper paragraphs: How did the investigators measure the topic of interest or how did they collect the information? Who were the children in the study? What were the results/conclusions of the study? Are there any drawbacks of this study that the researchers point out or that you see?
3. Concluding paragraph: How has this study informed your thinking about children?

Bioecological Systems Profile of Development

Value: 25%

Length: 2200 - 2400 words plus cover page and reference page, APA formatted

Due: Dec 10 by midnight

- Life cycle issues are best understood in terms of how they happen in people’s lives – your own and others. This developmental profile assignment will allow you to reflect upon your own experience of life within the context of developmental theory.
- You will be creating a “snapshot” of systems involved at various stages of development based on Bronfenbrenner’s Bioecological Systems model, page 50 – 51.
- First, summarize aspects of normative/typical development as described in the text using Bronfenbrenner’s model to organize your information. Review the relevant chapters to consider developmental milestones and the impact of different systems on development.
- Then, compare and contrast the information from the text with your own experience. You may choose to use your own life to explore, or if you would prefer, you can base it on a child that you know.

Please use the following format for your paper:

2. Introductory paragraph
3. Infancy : (based on chapters 4, 5, 6)	a) Individual context: Briefly describe key normative physical and cognitive changes during infancy, referring to the text. (Approximately 1 – 2 pages) b) Immediate context: (micro and meso) approximately one paragraph c) Socioeconomic context: (exo) approximately one paragraph d) Sociocultural context: (macro) approximately one paragraph Briefly describe key typical influences from each of the above systems (b,c,d), according to the text (such as: relationships, people, community factors, economic variables, cultural beliefs, societal structures specific to this life stage. Why they are important? How do they have an influence?

4. Early childhood: (based on chapters 7, 8)	Repeat the instructions given above for the infancy stage, but now covering the early childhood stage. Include what's different/the same as the previous stage.
5. Middle childhood: (based on chapters 9, 10)	Repeat the instructions given above for the early childhood stage, but now covering the middle childhood stage. Include what's different/the same as the previous stage.
6. Compare and contrast	Compare and contrast what our textbook presents about child development to your personal knowledge (using yourself or someone you know). How your personal story is the same or different from normative development as described in the text? What micro, meso, exo and macro system factors influenced your development and how?
7. Concluding paragraph	Summarize by reflecting on your overall learning about development from doing this assignment.
8. Reference page
