

IFS 119-X17 Winter 2017

ICP/IHSCAP Circle and Elder's Teaching

(Indigenous College Prep and Indigenous Human Services Career Access Program)

COURSE OUTLINE

This course consists of weekly circle-based discussions and debriefing sessions for program students, staff and faculty in the Winter Semester of the ICP/IHSCAP Program. On regular occasions, Indigenous elders and knowledge keepers will join the circle to share their wisdom and oral traditions.

Ω Please note: This outline will not be kept indefinitely. It is recommended students keep this outline for their records, especially to assist in transfer credit to post-secondary institutions.

5. Basis of Student Assessment (Weighting)

A: Respectful & Professional Participation in Circle: 60%

1. You will be expected to conduct yourself in a respectful and professional manner at all times. Attendance is a critical part of learning and a very important part of this course.
2. Participation includes asking questions, taking risks and actively participating in class discussions and group work.
3. Active Listening is an essential skill. You must be able to hear what people are saying so that you can gain their trust and respond to them in a respectful and appropriate manner.
4. Respect and professionalism includes being on time for class; letting the instructor know when you are unable to attend class; making arrangements with the instructor for extensions on assignments; looking for clarification when you are not understanding something and generally communicating in a respectful way when you are having difficulty.

Students who are not able to actively participate in a respectful and professional manner will be encouraged to meet with the instructor.

B: Self-in-Relation Journal Review: Due: Mar 23, 2017: 20%

This 2-3 page assignment (double-spaced) is intended to be an exploration of your strength/gifts and areas of growth in connection to your role(s) within your education journey.

1. How do you see your location within the Indigenous community and your connection to Indigenous ways of knowing and being contributing to your future education goals?
2. What strengths do you see yourself possessing now that you have done some exploring in this area over the past 6 months? Use what you have learned in all your courses this past 8 months.
3. What are your areas of growth (what do you still need to work on)?

You can also choose to invite an Elder into the circle instead of completing this written assignment. You would then be evaluated on how you used respectful circle process, arrange for the pickup of the elder if necessary and appropriate gifting if necessary. Peer evaluation will then contribute to your overall mark for this assignment based on what gift the rest of the circle received from the Elders teachings. Let Wendy know ASAP if you choose to do this so we can plan for the Elder's visit on one of the circle days that are available.

C: A completed Check List of your 2017Fall Educational Journey Due: April 06, 2017: 20%

Instructor will hand out the check list that is to be completed closer to the due date!

LATE POLICY

All assignments are to be submitted in class on day that they are due. In exceptional circumstances, students may arrange with the instructor for an extension of an assignment BEFORE the due date. 5% per day will be deducted for late assignments if prior arrangements have not been made with the instructor.
